GAUDETE: CELEBRATING THE GOD OF JOY

It's the third Sunday of Advent – Gaudete Sunday! It means that Christmas, the festival of the Incarnation is drawing very near. While the first two Sundays of Advent have focused on being ready for the Second Coming of Jesus at the parousia, this Sunday marks the shift of the Church's focus to the preparation for the coming of Jesus' birthday.

Hence, the very rarely visible liturgical color suddenly shows up – the rose color inserts itself between the purples of the Advent Season to tell the church to rejoice. The rose color tells us to put on the joy of God. And I am always flabbergasted by people who think that God is an enemy of joy, that is, to claim that laughing and smiling is some type of formal irreverence to God. But the fact is, spiritual joy is the fruit of the Holy Spirit. As Pope Francis clarified in one of his general audience messages, "In contrast with fleeting worldly joys, the Spirit grants us a profound and enduring joy born of his presence in our hearts. The joy of God's love not only fills our own lives but also inspires us to share that joy with others. Saint Paul encourages us to 'rejoice in the Lord always' (Phil 4:4)."

Consider what these saints say about spiritual joy:

"God made us for joy. God is joy, and the joy of living reflects the original joy that God felt in creating us." St. Pope John Paul II

"When we are expecting only suffering, the least joy surprises us: Suffering itself becomes the greatest joys when we seek it as a precious treasure." St. Thérèse de Lisieux

"You ask me whether I am in good spirits. How could I not be so? As long as faith gives me strength, I will always be joyful." Bl. Pier Giorgio Frassati

"Joy, with peace, is the sister of charity. Serve the Lord with laughter." St. Padre Pio

It is one of the greatest forms of Christian witness to be joyful in the Lord. I mean, really, who wants to be a Christian if the church is full of grouchy, angry, miserable looking and unhappy people? God, who is a joyful God, is a God of joy and wants to share His true and lasting joy to all of creation, especially to us, who are created in His image and likeness. And so, during this Holy Season of Advent and the Joyful Season of Christmas, I invite you, my dear Saint Michael family, to truly connect with Jesus so that IN ALL CIRCUMSTANCES, your spirit may draw deeply from the well of divine joy.

Here are some quick ideas for joy in this season:

1. Quiet down your mind so that your heart can finally remind you what's important.
2. Be reconciled with God and people around you. Joy comes with forgiveness.
3. Spend some quality time with people you love. It can be just for 15-minutes for mutual encouragement. Those little doses of connection bring joy.
4. Do simple and intentional acts of goodness toward others. Once a day is a good start.
5. Pray. Prayer always brings joy in one's soul. Just talk to God in your own words, silently.
6. Make a habit of counting your blessings.
7. Use time well. Meaningless activities dampen the soul and dulls the heart.
8. Go to mass, not only when it's required. Go to mass to give thanks. Gratitude brings joy.
9. For the Christmas Season, give more meaningful gifts, like gift of time and gift of service.
10. Be excited about the future. Optimism goes a long way in the joy index.

Any other ideas? But in all these things, make sure that every joy points back to the God of joy. This weekend, as we celebrate Gaudete Sunday, let this joyful God be the star and the true reason for this holy and beautiful season that is still unfolding. God bless our Advent Season!

In the joy of the coming King,

Fr. Sunny Castillo

Sunday's Readings

First Reading:

The LORD, your God, is in your midst,
a mighty savior;
he will rejoice over you with gladness. (Zep 3:17)

Psalm:

Cry out with joy and gladness: for among you is the great and Holy One of Israel. (Is 12:6)

Second Reading:

The Lord is near.
Have no anxiety at all, but in everything,
by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving,
make your requests known to God. (Phil 4:5-6)

Gospel:

The crowds asked John the Baptist,
"What should we do?" (Lk 3:10)

Sacred Steps: Exploring Pilgrimages Near and

Have you ever made or wanted to make a pilgrimage to a holy site? Before answering that, let's establish the difference between a vacation and a pilgrimage. A vacation is a leisure trip for a "getaway," usually focused on relaxation, entertainment, and exploration. A Catholic pilgrimage, on the other hand, is a spiritual journey to a sacred site with the purpose of deepening one's faith, seeking divine grace, or fulfilling a religious vow. While vacations prioritize personal enjoyment, pilgrimages emphasize not only some personal enjoyment but also spiritual growth and devotion.

The foundation of a pilgrimage is found throughout both the Old and New Testaments. Examples include Abraham's journey of faith and St. Paul's missionary journeys with and for our Lord. Even the Gospels provide accounts of pilgrimage: each year, Jesus' parents traveled to Jerusalem for the Feast of Passover. In His adult life, Jesus continued this tradition, journeying throughout the Holy Land and ultimately returning to Jerusalem to face His suffering, death, and resurrection.

One of my favorite pilgrimage sites is the Sanctuary of Our Lady of Guadalupe in Mexico. Because I worked in Mexico and lived in close proximity to the sanctuary, I have visited many times and have brought friends and family to this holy site. The basilica and grounds are stunning and reflect vibrant cultural expressions of faith and devotion. This inspirational site is where countless people bring their hopes, struggles, and gratitude. Standing before the image of the Virgin, you can palpably feel the love and trust people have placed in her for centuries.

As we approach the Feast of Our Lady of Guadalupe on December 12, I am certain that many of you would love to travel on a pilgrimage to Mexico to visit her. However, because of distance, time, expense, or other constraints, that possibility may be out of reach. Let me offer some ideas for making a more local pilgrimage, particularly to Our Lady of Guadalupe.

This past October, I had the opportunity to join the Knights and Dames of the Equestrian Order of the Holy Sepulcher. Their investiture Mass took place at the Shrine of Our Lady of Guadalupe in La Crosse, Wisconsin. It is just a short four-hour drive from the Joliet area. Completed in 2008, this Marian shrine invites pilgrims and visitors to an extraordinarily beautiful place of prayer and devotion. With a variety of chapels and gardens, the 70-acre site evokes similar feelings of love for Our Lady and her Son, Jesus, as I have felt while visiting the shrine in Mexico.

If La Crosse still feels too far to travel, consider "El Cerrito" in Des Plaines, IL. This Sanctuary of Our Lady of Guadalupe includes life-sized statues depicting the apparitions of the Virgin Mary to Saint Juan Diego. These statues are part of a dedicated space within the sanctuary, offering visitors a chance to pray and reflect on this sacred moment.

Perhaps your holiday travels this season unexpectedly bring you close to a shrine. It's convenient to locate various shrines on-line at sites such as www.catholicshrines.org or www.catholicpilgrimagesites.wordpress.com/sites-by-state.

If you prefer staying closer to home for your pilgrimage, consider doing a Visitation of the Seven Churches in your local community during Holy Week. In this Catholic tradition, pilgrims visit multiple churches on the evening of Holy Thursday to reflect, pray, and meditate on Christ's Passion and sacrifice. It may not be a pilgrimage of long distance, yet it certainly embodies the spiritual journey of faith and devotion.

Several priests in the Diocese of Joliet from time to time offer Catholic pilgrimages to various sacred sites around the world. One priest recently shared with me his motivation for leading pilgrimages: "Pilgrimages provide an opportunity to broaden our horizons as the past comes into contact with the present, and we are changed by this interaction. Every pilgrim is called by Jesus to go on a journey of encounter where He introduces us to our larger family as we meet the saints who wait for us at each holy site."

As we prepare to celebrate Christmas, remember that shepherds, kings, and even angels made their pilgrimage to worship and adore our Savior at His birth. As we walk our own journeys of faith and life, may God bless you abundantly as, together, we as a Church continue to make our pilgrimage to our final destination: the heavenly Jerusalem.

“Have no anxiety at all, but in everything, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, make your requests known to God.” (PHILIPPIANS 4:6)

St. Paul reminds us that God is an abundant God - He is the ultimate giver of gifts. He promises to give us all that we need. Remember, that we are created in God’s image and likeness. We, too, are made to be generous Stewards sharing all of our gifts as well.

Placing our trust in God frees us from being a slave to possessions. It allows us to gratefully and generously share ourselves and our goods with others.
