Fr. Santos 'Sunny' Castillo – FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

THE NEARNESS OF GOD'S LOVE and What Christmas Really Means!

It's the Fourth Sunday of Advent! How has your preparation been, my dear St. Michael family? I hope that it has been intentional fruitful, and filled with wonderful moments of clarity about how much God loves us to choose to be born in our human condition only to raise all humanity to His divine life. What a crazy God indeed, crazy in love of you and me.

That is why on this fourth Sunday of Advent, let us decide to celebrate Christmas well. It is a short season, one that lasts a few weeks, but it certainly is the most wonderful time of the year. Why? That's because Christmas is the day of our salvation. It is the one moment in all of history that God showed us that we matter, that we are loved beyond conditions, despite ourselves and our human frailty. God tells us that we are worth saving, because He loves us and desires us.

Wait what? Read that whole paragraph again, and slowly... then get back to this. (Please do it NOW, and slowly.) 😊

Beloved Church, I admit, I am always surprised and utterly stupefied by that entire kerygma. Does God really love us so much, that much, and more, that He came to be with us in our human misery, so He can save us in such a profoundly moving and humbling way?

YES. God's love is the ultimate Christmas message. It's a perfect love of God that compels and bothers us, we cannot help but respond to it when faced with the meaning of the birth of the Child Jesus in the manger. So here are my suggestions and encouragement for all of us as a parish, as we arrive at the Christmas Season:

Think about your worth as a person. Usually, we are too busy to reflect on the implication of the Incarnation, but did it ever occur to you that God's being born into our human condition means so much to our humanity? It means that collectively, but also individually, we are worth His Godly attention, effort and sacrifice. I sometimes think of that best in the first person point of view: "Jesus was born for me because I matter to Him, I am important for Him, He wants me, He loves me...". That is the most important anthropological significance of what we are about to celebrate.

Find ways to give back. Look around and see the many others for whom Jesus was born. Yes, indeed, He came for me and you, and for all the others. No one is anonymous in God. Everyone is known, recognized, understood, and accepted completely as they are, and loved as they are. And so, at the heart of the Christmas proclamation, when God inserted Himself into human history, in time and space, He demonstrated how we are to love others, just like He has done. Have we not read Jesus say in many places of Scripture, but especially in the Gospel of John, "Love one another as I have loved you..." (John 13:34). Thus, the best way to give back to God the love He has given is by loving others around us. That is the essence of Christmas.

Take your faith seriously. This is our belief – that God loves us that Jesus was born into the world to save us. That's another recapitulation of John 3:16. Christmas is not just a day to celebrate the birth of Christ. It is a way of life, a constant commitment to celebrating one's blessings and gifts given by God in every moment of every day. Our entire life should be about thanksgiving to God. Let's no longer be lukewarm in practicing our faith; instead, let Jesus be our ultimate passion and purpose.

As we come to the conclusion of the Advent Season and open the doors to the glorious season of Christmas, I ask, my dear parishioners, for your prayers that I may remain inspired by the Little Child in the manger, as I promise to pray for the blessing of your entire circle of family and friends.

Waiting in Hope, Compelled by Love,
And ready for the Joy of Christmas,

Fr. Sunny Castillo

(LUKE 1:44)

When you hear the scripture readings and Gospel reading at Mass, do you “leap for joy?” If not, don’t blame the lecturer or priest, rather look inside yourself. What are you doing as a Christian Steward to grow in friendship with Jesus? How do you prepare for Mass each week? Do you just show up and expect to be entertained? As the Body of Christ, we are called to be active participants, not just passive observers.
