FEAST OF
THE HOLY FAMILY

Fr. Santos 'Sunny' Castillo — FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

FOSTERING THE HOLINESS OF FAMILY

My dear parish family, this weekend, we are celebrating the Feast of the Holy Family, as we are still in the midst of the Christmas Season.

I hope that the past few days have been incredibly joyful and meaningful for all of you. I sure hope that you had many opportunities to share the beauty of this holy season with your family members and friends as well. Here in our church, many beautiful moments have been witnessed over the past few weeks. Among them are our well-attended Christmas liturgies, which is made most wonderful by seeing everyone come together as families to give glory to God. Collectively and individually, we have witnessed moments of intentional reunion and get-togethers centered on celebrating the gift of God's love. Personally, I experienced profound moments of familial love with many of you who have extended their blessings to me and Fr. Jacob, your prayerful thoughts, your greetings and presents, your affectionate presence and warm words of affirmation, all these count to an overwhelming feeling of being at home for Christmas here at St. Michael.

I want to say thank you especially to our parish leadership teams, to our parish ministries and volunteer groups, and those that helped execute our liturgical and social plans for a meaningful season; it is still ongoing, and the generosity and dedication does not stop for all of you. Thank you to our parish staff who have been tirelessly working, making sure that our day-to-day operation is smooth during the Christmas Season, despite the many demands and detail work that have been required from them. I want to extend my deepest gratitude to Fr. Jacob, Fr. Tony, Deacon Dan Aderholdt and Deacon Dan Simmet, and their families for the faith and love that they share with our parish family. I am very much inspired to be surrounded by their love and dedicated service to our parish family.

As we celebrate the feast of Jesus, Mary and Joseph, and the holiness that they foster for us all, I encourage all our families to work toward the holiness of your families:

Parents and grandparents, you have the greatest opportunity to shape the life of your children and grandchildren. I ask you to help your children to fall in love with God. Show them how important it is to have a personal relationship with Jesus. Doing this early in the life of your children and following it through consistently with your witness of devotion and faithfulness will provide a foundation for the succeeding generation of your family to be always centered in God and rooted in faith, hope and love. This will be the best legacy of your life, and the pathway to your holiness/sainthood.

Children, while you are young, focus on building a good character. Docility goes along with your youth. Develop strong and solid Christian values now, so that all your words, actions and decisions will be conformed with your basic identity as children of God. This is the best way for you to honor your parents and grandparents, to live out the faith that they pass on to your generation. Know that Jesus wants you, loves you and calls you to have a personal relationship with Him. So pray not only with your mouth and memory, but even more, pray with your heart and talk to Jesus as you talk to your friend, because He is really your True and Best Friend.

Please know my dear parish families that Saint Michael is your spiritual home and the rest of us are your spiritual family. We are a big community and we are all family in God. May this Christmas Season see our families gathered around the manger, celebrating the birth of Jesus, who by His sacrifice of love, has adopted us into His Divine Family with the Heavenly Father and Their Holy Spirit.

Jesu, Mary and Joseph, we consecrate to you our earthly families, and our parish family. Make us holy in the likeness of your family in Nazareth. Amen.

Your father, brother, and friend,
Fr. Sunny Castillo

“See what love the Father has given us, that we should be called children of God; and so we are.” (1 JOHN 3:1)

During this Stewardship season of giving, let us remember a beautiful gift that we have received – being children of God! As God’s children, it’s in our DNA that we share and express our love for others as well. Tell your spouse, children, other family members and friends that you love them, every day! Also, pray for those people that are different than you, those that you may not like or those that go out of their way to annoy you. Your prayers may be the start of a new friendship.
