Fr. Santos 'Sunny' Castillo — FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

PASTOR'S PROMISE and GRATITUDE

Last Sunday, at the 10:45 Mass, the solemn rite of installation of pastor was presided by Bishop Ronald Hicks. As I look back to the day's events and the things that took place then, my heart is overwhelmed with gratitude and appreciation.

The actual rite of installation, as some of you commented after Mass, does sound very imposing, highfalutin, demanding, and maybe overwhelming. And in case we do not realize, it is not a joke, not to be taken light-heartedly. Perhaps, for the purpose of this article, allow me to break down three important promises that are made by the pastor during the rite of installation:

Promise of Fidelity. To remain faithful to the teachings of the Church. As a teacher of the faith, the pastor indeed, teaches not his own ideas or opinions but the teachings of the entire Church, the magisterium. And since no person knows everything about the full compendium of faith and doctrine, then the pastor is expected to be continually learning, growing in understanding. To remain faithful also means to be diligent in the task of pastoral ministry, because this is the primary work of every priest, the salvation of souls.

Promise of Service. To save souls and look after the sanctification of the people under his care, the pastor is called as a spiritual shepherd on behalf of the bishop. As the pastor, I embody the depth of this spiritual responsibility. The task is expressed in our prayerfulness, in our availability, and in our commitment to bring hope, healing, divine mercy, and compassion to every person who walks through the doors of the church. To any person, this is of course, a very overwhelming task, but I know that the Lord always provides the grace necessary for the mission.

Promise of Holiness. Bishop Hicks, indeed, in his homily, summarized his exhortation by inviting me to live a holy life as your pastor. Holiness has a way of influencing people from within. In the words of St. Francis, my favorite saint, holiness is to always preach the Gospel of Jesus, and if necessary, use words. Holiness is life and a living witness, and every priest is called to such ideal.

WORDS OF GRATITUDE. At this juncture, I want to express my gratitude to the staff and volunteers that helped in the celebration last weekend. I felt the Holy Spirit present in our midst. The liturgy was beautiful, and the efforts of every liturgical minister is a gift, and I am grateful, beginning with our bishop Most Reverend Ronald Hicks and his emcee Deacon Bob Misiunas, priests Fr. Jacob, Fr. Dindo Billote and Fr. Joe Gasta (who concelebrated at mass), our deacons Dan Simmet and Dan Aderholdt, and Deacon Candidate Mike Doerries. Being with the parish staff and parish council members was such a symbolic moment in the liturgy and rite. I want to thank each of them for their generosity and support. Thanks to all our liturgical ministers, our mass coordinators Cathy, Peggy and Maribeth, our parish choir and music ministers led by Dr. Kevin Ballard for their incredibly uplifting work, the Knights of Columbus who graced our liturgy with their service as honor guards. I also want to say thank you to Keith Larson (of PJ's Camera & Photo Supply) for his photo coverage. The fellowship that followed was beautiful and filled with goodness. Thanks to Mary Marten for her planning, and for all those that helped make the celebration beautiful. Thanks also to many of my family and friends who joined in prayer and celebration, including those that brought the Filipino desserts; so awesome.

Thanks to you, my Saint Michael family, for your unfailing love and welcome to this priest from the other side of the world, whom you have embraced from then 'til now as part of your spiritual family. God bless you all and thank you for the privilege of being your pastor.

Officially, your pastor,

Fr. Sunny Castillo

*Fr. Sunny Castillo
Installation Mass
May 11, 2025*

Thank you Lord for our pastor, Fr. Sunny Castillo.
We are grateful for the opportunity to grow and serve together.
Bless our journey and keep us steadfast in our faith.
Amen.

It would have been impossible to have enjoyed such a wonderful event without the help of all of our volunteers! We are incredibly grateful to the many volunteers for your loving service to the Church and the St. Michael Parish community.

Weekly Prayer

Sunday's Readings

First Reading:

And when they arrived, they called the church together
and reported what God had done with them and how he had opened the door of faith to the Gentiles. (Acts 14:27)

Psalm:

I will praise your name for ever, my king and my God.
(Ps 145) Or: Alleluia.

Second Reading:

I heard a loud voice from the throne saying,
"Behold, God's dwelling is with the human race.
He will dwell with them and they will be his people and God himself will always be with them as their God."
(Rv 21:4)

Gospel:

I give you a new commandment: love one another.
As I have loved you, so you also should love one another.
(Jn 13:34)

Stewardship Love

"I give you a new commandment: love one another. As I have loved you, so you also should love one another." (JOHN 13:34)

"As I have loved you," this is the hard part for Stewards – Jesus's love is unconditional; our love usually comes with strings attached.

It is easy to love someone when they love you back. But it takes mercy and compassion to love someone when you feel unappreciated, feel used or feel like your opinion doesn't matter. It takes courage and the grace of God to "love my neighbor" when they may be someone you don't like, someone you don't know, or someone that doesn't look like you.

FREEWILL

A Legacy of Faith this Easter

As we rejoice in the Easter season, we reflect on Christ's resurrection and the new life it brings. Just as Jesus's sacrifice created an eternal legacy of hope and salvation, we are called to consider how our lives and resources might continue to serve God's kingdom beyond our time on earth.

One simple way to do this is by creating a will. Through our partnership with FreeWill, you can complete this important task in just 20 minutes—for FREE. This tool allows you to protect your loved ones and, if you choose, make a lasting gift to St. Michael Parish ensuring our faith community thrives for generations to come.

Updates from St. Michael Parish School

THE ELOCUTIONISTS

St. Michael Parish School proudly hosted the 22nd Annual Poetry Elocution Contest. We were amazed by all our students' talent, creativity, and confidence as they performed with clarity, emotion, and enthusiasm. A special highlight of this year's contest was the incredible selection of original poems written by students. Their thoughtful words and powerful performances left a lasting impression on everyone, showcasing not only their writing skills but also their courage in sharing their unique voices. Way to go, Lancers!

Congratulations of all our winners of the Students' Choice Awards and Teachers' Choice Awards. We are so proud of each of you!
