Fr. Santos 'Sunny' Castillo — FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

OUR MISSION WEEKENDS: A REVIEW

The ability to give and to help others is not just an act of generosity—it is a privilege. It is a grace entrusted to us by God's Providence, inviting us to respond with compassion to those who do not have the same resources and opportunities that we do.

That's why the past two weekends have been especially meaningful. As a parish, we responded with open hearts to the mission appeals that were presented to us—and we did so with faith, kindness, and generosity. These moments remind us that we are part of something bigger than ourselves. Our acts of giving ripple outward, becoming blessings for others and drawing us closer to the heart of Christ.

Bishop Msusa and Our Lady of Namulenga School – Archdiocese of Blantyre, Malawi

We give thanks to God and to the generous hearts of Saint Michael Parishioners who, before the pandemic, contributed to the construction of a school in the Archdiocese of Blantyre, Malawi. Today, that school stands as Our Lady of Namulenga—a beacon of hope and learning for many children.

Thanks to your support, Bishop Patrick Msusa and the local community were able to bring this dream to life, offering education and opportunity to young people who otherwise would have gone without. The school stands as a testament to the enduring power of faith, generosity, and global solidarity.

Bishop Msusa, a joyful and deeply positive shepherd, visited our parish on July 6 and joined Bishop Richard Pates and Fr. Damiano for lunch. He was eager to share how moved he was to see so many parishioners at Mass, and he noted the growth in attendance since the pandemic. He described Saint Michael as joyful, approachable, and very generous—a description that affirms the spirit of our faith-filled community.

Let us continue to pray for the students, teachers, and families of Our Lady of Namulenga School, and for Bishop Msusa, whose leadership and vision continue to bless the Church in Malawi.

The Oikos Sisters and the Poor Household of God – Diocese of Borongan, Samar, Philippines

Last weekend, Fr. Michael, our designated mission appeal speaker for 2025, visited our parish to speak on behalf of the Oikos Sisters (www.poorhouseholdofgod.org/oikos-sisters), a small but remarkable community of religious nuns serving in the Central Philippines. Best known for providing homes to homeless orphans, the Oikos Sisters offer not just shelter, but a future filled with hope and possibility.

Fr. Michael was joined by Dr. Victor Trinkus and Paul, a young man who grew up in the Oikos orphanage and is now pursuing his studies here in the United States through a scholarship funded by Joliet lay missionaries who travel to Borongan annually. Paul shared his moving story of loss, resilience, and the life-changing love he received from the sisters and missionaries. Meeting him was a powerful reminder of how our support truly transforms lives.

Fr. Michael and Paul were both grateful for the warm welcome they received and were especially touched by the sight of many young families attending Mass together. They expressed deep appreciation for the generous response of our parish to the mission appeal.

My dear Saint Michael Parish family, let us not miss these sacred opportunities to do something good. These outreach appeals allow us to make a far-reaching impact in communities around the world—places where the Catholic Church, in the name of Christ, brings healing, education, and hope. By responding generously, we become part of the Church's universal mission, carrying the light of Christ into corners of the world where poverty can so easily lead to despair. Together, we can be instruments of hope.

Let us act while we can, give while we are able, and love as Christ calls us to love.

Chilling, praying, healing and simply being,

Fr. Sunny Castillo

Weekly Prayer

Sunday's Readings

First Reading:

They asked Abraham, "Where is your wife Sarah?"
He replied, "There in the tent."
One of them said, "I will surely return to you about
this time next year,
and Sarah will then have a son." (Gn 18:10)

Psalm:

He who does justice will live in the presence of the Lord. (Ps 15)

Second Reading:

It is Christ in you, the hope for glory.
It is he whom we proclaim. (Col 1:27-28)

Gospel:

The Lord said to her in reply,
"Martha, Martha, you are anxious and worried about many things.
There is need of only one thing.
Mary has chosen the better part and it will not be taken from her." (Lk 10:42)

Make a Local Pilgrimage This Summer

Millions of Catholics from around the world are converging on Rome for the Jubilee Year of Hope. During this special year, Catholics have the opportunity to gain indulgences by making pilgrimages, prayerfully visiting specific churches, or practicing works of mercy.

Can't make it all the way to Rome but still want to participate as a pilgrim? The good news is that according to the Vatican, pilgrims anywhere in the world who undertake "a pious pilgrimage to any sacred jubilee site" and devoutly participate in holy Mass can obtain the indulgence. In addition, the faithful can also obtain the jubilee indulgence if they devoutly visit any jubilee site, individually or in a group. While there, they should engage in Eucharistic adoration and meditation for a suitable period and conclude with the Our Father, the profession of faith, and invocations to Mary, Mother of God.

In the U.S., bishops across the country have announced special designated jubilee pilgrimage sites throughout their dioceses. Designated parishes in the Diocese of Joliet are listed on the following page.

Stewards Evangelize

"...I am a minister in accordance with God's stewardship given to me to bring to completion for you the word of God." COLOSSIANS 1:25

Stewards are called to evangelize – to convert individuals and society by the divine power of the Gospel. Our faith is more attractive to others by our actions than by our words alone. We may not be called to evangelize like St. Paul, but we should look for opportunities to share our faith through our actions and words, especially with those closest to us, like our family, friends, and neighbors. Pray for the courage to joyfully express your faith the next time the opportunity arises.
