"Blessed are those servants whom the master finds vigilant on his arrival. Amen, I say to you, he will gird himself, have them recline at table, and proceed to wait on them." - Lk 12:37

Fr. Santos 'Sunny' Castillo — FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

MORE THAN JUST A PARISH PICNIC

I remember those years when our parish picnic happened at Herrick Lake. I was an associate pastor, and the new church was newly dedicated. We took a full section of the lakeside, and celebrated a Mass there, followed by a parish cookout with burgers and brats, ice cream and drinks. People came with excitement and a sense of gratitude for belonging to the Saint Michael parish family. There was an obvious pride deep within the spirit of the picnic. It was one I always looked forward to.

But why a parish picnic? Is this just one of those things that we have been accustomed to do, and lost sense of the purpose and reason why we do them? Last year, I remember giving out ice cream bars, and I was excited, being reintroduced to our parish fifteen long years since I finished my assignment as associate pastor with Fr. Don McLaughlin. I took note of some new faces, and was glad to meet new families, while wondering what happened to the many that I no longer see, the people who have passed, but also the people who have moved to other parishes, or have stopped connecting with the community over the years. I also noticed that by the time I was done giving out the ice cream bars, the parish picnic was also done. Barely a few tables still had some people winding down their conversations. It was over so quickly, it was over before it was over.

Our parish picnic is one that is meant to build community, to reach out to one another in a casual environment, to get to know the people who sit around us during the Mass. It is a time to make a few steps in a feeling of belonging to each other. It is a chance to get to know someone else who might be on the other side of the church or may attend a different Mass altogether on the weekend. Yes, it is an intentional attempt to tighten our community spirit and to become more familiar with each other.

I also hope that our parish picnic becomes an opportunity to look back at the efforts and legacies of the many who have gone before us. It is a celebration of what they have done. It is a picnic of gratitude. We stand here today as St. Michael parish through the generosity and vision of those who were here before us, beginning with the priests and religious who served here, to the founding families and volunteers that have kept the life of the parish flowing. I remember when I was working on the About Us section of our newly redeveloped parish website, rereading the history of our church. It was obvious that there were many more people who were part of the story, but the broad strokes of memory were enough for me to thank God for each person that made us who we are today. I remembered Fr. Don who passed away on August 6, barely two years ago, and the story of how our current parish church building rose from the ashes of the wooden church that was destroyed by the fire of 2002. Let us thank the generations of the past for their imprints of faith that continue to inspire the community of today.

I then want to thank the major sponsors of this year's Saint Michael Parish Picnic:

Buck Services. The Buchholz Family are parish members since 1967, and have been a facilities partner since 1988.

Armbrust Plumbing, Heat and Air, since 1918. The Armbrust Family have been around for so long, their legacy is so deep, it is immeasurable in every way.

Borter Heating and Cooling. Just like the Armbrusts, the Borters have deep roots in our community. We are grateful for their continued generosity to our parish.

Hultgren Funeral Home. Our partners in support to grieving families, providing services in their time of loss.

Central DuPage Orthodontics, Ltd. They love St. Mike's! They even offer a free exam.

Beck General Dentistry. Drs. Dennis, Nicole and Mark are all alumni of St. Michael School.

Williams-Kampp Funeral Homes. Our partners in support to grieving families, providing services to families in their time of loss.

Seven Dwarfs Family Restaurant. They have been serving our parishioners with their all-day, all-week food services. This family restaurant is now an institution, having been established 50 years ago.

Thank you most of all to the men of our parish's Holy Name Society and their wives and/or family. Year after year, they have been hosting the parish picnic with dedication, service, and unequalled hard work. May the Good Lord bless you all and give success to your work and endeavors. God bless our parish.

Ad multos annos,

Fr. Sunny Castillo

Jesus encourages us to build up our treasure in heaven. The world encourages us to build up our treasure in real estate, investments, and material goods.
