Thoughts from Fr. Paul

As we celebrate Palm Sunday we begin the most holy week in the life of Christianity. My prayer is that all of us will participate as fully as possible in the sacred moments of this week. Please refer to our Holy Week insert for all that will take place within our parishes this week. One of the special liturgical celebrations is the Archdiocesan Chrism Mass at the Cathedral of St. Raphael in Dubuque at 2pm on Tuesday.

This is an Archdiocesan celebration and all are welcome to attend but knowing that may not be possible for many of you there is a way everyone can witness this celebration as it happens or at a later time. The Chrism Mass will be live streamed on the Internet and then archived for those who want to view it at a later time. The address to watch the Mass is <https://www.dubuque.org/live/>

May this most holy week be a time for all of us to give thanks to our Lord as we witness to the ultimate sacrifice that He made for us and the gift He gave us in the Resurrection.

Yours in Christ,
Fr. Paul

Palm Sunday of the Passion of the Lord

Palm Sunday is a strange day in our liturgical calendar. We begin by waving palms, but somewhere in the middle, we call for Jesus to be crucified. We celebrate today an equally paradoxical God, one who comes to save through suffering.

"I tell you, if they keep silent, the stones will cry out!" Jesus, who so often in the Gospels tries to hide his true identity, speaks thunderously to the Pharisees who would still the rejoicing crowd. At the Last Supper, Jesus confirms the Messianic promise to his disciples, saying "I confer a kingdom on you, just as my Father has conferred one on me." Yet, before the night is over, Jesus has been betrayed.

We hear the tragedy unfold in Luke's Passion narrative. Jesus is abused by the council of elders, denied by Peter, whipped by Roman soldiers, and condemned to death by Pilate. But what else do we see? Jesus heals someone who came to arrest him, forgives his torturers, promises a repentant man paradise, and - by his loving endurance - converts a centurion at the foot of the cross. Jesus is both Redeemer of the World and Suffering Servant. In taking on the mantle of Messiah, Jesus does not only receive our praise and our accolades, but he bears our burdens and sins and does so with the deepest love. He may go about our salvation in a paradoxical way, but he is dearer to our own suffering hearts for it. This week, we remember that no sorrow of our own is beyond the reach of the compassion of God.
