

Jesus said to his disciples: “Thus it is written that the Christ would suffer and rise from the dead on the third day. You are witnesses of these things.” - Lk 24:46, 48

Attention – Sacred Heart Parishioners! Are you 18 or older, registered in the parish, and interested in serving your parish community? If so, then please consider placing your name on the ballot for either the Sacred Heart Pastoral Council or the Sacred Heart Board of Education. There are two members from the Pastoral Council and two from the Board of Education that are completing their first three year term. They have the option of running for a second term. The Archdiocese prefers that we have at least three candidates for each open seat. We ask that all candidates submit a one paragraph bio on themselves for publication in the bulletin on the weekend of May 4th & 5th. If you would like to have your name placed on the ballot please contact Fr. Paul at DBQ136@dbqarch.org by Tuesday, April 30th

Thoughts from Fr. Paul

Happy Easter! Our Lord has taken us on a journey of prayer, reflection, and penance in the desert. He entered Jerusalem in triumph and died upon the cross for our sins. Today in His resurrection He shows us that death is not the end for those who believe. As we come together this weekend to celebrate the great gift of our Lord's resurrection and enter into the Easter Season I hope we all take time to give thanks and praise to God. Our Lord's resurrection gives us hope and faith in eternal life. Thank you Lord for loving us so much!

May God bless you in this Easter season as we now journey toward our Lord's Ascension and the birth of the Church under the guidance of the Holy Spirit at Pentecost.

Yours in Christ,
Fr. Paul

Thank you to the members of the Sacred Heart Parish Guild, to all the volunteers, and to everyone that attended the Parish Fish Fry on April 12th. Much time, talent, and treasure goes into the planning and the event itself. Once again it was another great success!

The Stations of the Cross at Sacred Heart are in place. There three of them that are missing a letter in the description but those will be added very soon. Thanks to the people of Immaculate Conception in Castle Grove for offering the stations to Sacred Heart and thank you to all those who donated funds toward the restoration and installation of the stations. A special thank you to Dale Hosch along with Kevin & Julie Miller for all their efforts in bringing the stations to their new home. The stations are truly beautiful. We are now in the process of finding a new home for the former stations. We will keep you informed of the progress in that effort.

Observances for the week of April 21, 2019

The celebration of Our Lord's Resurrection continues in the Church for eight days, called the Octave of Easter. Each day of the Octave is ranked as a Solemnity in the Church's liturgical calendar, the highest ranking of liturgical feasts. At Masses during the Octave of Easter, as on Sundays, the Gloria, is recited or sung. And at the end of each Mass of the Octave, the double Alleluia is sung at the dismissal.

The idea of an Octave of a great feast has its roots in the Old Testament. There are many Jewish feasts that lasted for eight days, for example, the feast of Passover and the feast of Tabernacles. In the Catholic Church, we celebrate eight days of Christmas as well as eight days of Easter.

Student of the Week
Lorelei Rieken

Good day and hello. I am Lorelei Rieken. I live with my parents Mark and Christine Rieken and my twin sister Miranda. I'm twelve and my birthday is the 16th of December. I love to read and my favorite type of animal is a cat. I love most things about Sacred Heart, but I will miss the family feeling the most. When I lost my sister Cassie, everyone was very supportive of me and my family.

Mary Ann Kern passed away on April 6, sister to Tony (Alice) Russ of St. Luke.

Tom Yackley passed away on April 10, brother to Mary (Mark) Ries of St. Luke.

Please keep these families in your prayers.

Easter Sunday

Can you imagine that moment? Can you imagine the stomach drop with dizzying realization: "It's all true. All of it is true! The past three years weren't a dream that ended horribly wrong." Can you imagine all the doubts and despair of the past days chased away like smoke on the wind by a rolled up burial cloth? By an empty tomb?

It didn't start that way, of course. "They have taken the Lord from the tomb, and we don't know where they put him." This frantic news from Mary Magdalene would have been another unexpected blow. After all that happened, now his body has been stolen? The love and devotion in Peter and John is apparent. They don't wait to collect more information or stop by the tomb when they have a chance. They run to the site. When is the last time you ran for something? This isn't a run for exercise, but a huffing and puffing bolt fueled by desperation. Can you imagine that moment? The fear pounding in their temples, matching their accelerated heart rate. Can you imagine the impatient affection of John, who outruns Peter but refuses to enter the tomb alone? And then, upon entry, "He saw and believed."

This is the drama of our great feast! The promise that seemed lost has been found. The dead are raised. Long before the Easter eggs and ham, we are invited to meditate on this divine reality. We are invited to feel the desperation and joy of that first Easter Sunday deep in our bones. Because it is not just Mary's story. It's not Peter and John's story. It's our story. From the greatest defeat can come the most awe-inspiring victory, and this is true not just for our God, but for each one of us. He is risen indeed! Alleluia!
