A Message from Fr. Paul

From Rome to NE Iowa

On June 29, 2024, Archbishop Zinkula and 32 other recently installed metropolitan archbishops worldwide received their pallia from Pope Francis at St. Peter's Basilica in Rome. However, it was not formally imposed/ conferred upon him by the Pope or his nuncio. In January 2015, Pope Francis modified the rite so that his nuncios (diplomats) impose the pallium on metropolitan archbishops in a separate ceremony in their home archdiocese. The imposition/conferral will take place at St. Elizabeth Ann Seton Church in Hiawatha.

There will be an insert in the next edition of the bulletin with the details for the Pallium Mass which is open to the faithful of the Archdiocese. The Pallium Mass will also be livestreamed for those who are not able to be at the Mass.

The September 8 Pallium Mass allows the faithful of the Archdiocese of Dubuque to recognize and celebrate the unity of the local and universal Church.

What is a Pallium? A pallium is a wool vestment worn over the shoulders of a metropolitan archbishop to signify his unity with the Pope and his role in shepherding his local flock. The white wool vestment calls to mind the image of Jesus the Good Shepherd carrying a lamb on his shoulders.

Who is a Metropolitan (Archbishop)? A Metropolitan is an Archbishop of an Archdiocese who presides over a Province or a collection of Dioceses grouped for practical administrative purposes. A Province has one Archdiocese and one or more Dioceses. The other Dioceses in the Province are referred to as Suffragan Dioceses. The state of Iowa, with the Archdiocese of Dubuque and the Dioceses of Davenport, Des Moines, and Sioux City, comprise the Province of Dubuque.

This information is from the Archdiocese of Dubuque's Archdiocesan website at dbqarch.org
I hope you will consider attending the Pallium Mass on September 8th either in person or online.

Yours in Christ,
Fr. Paul
