Pastor's Corner

"And we who have thought of happiness as climbing, would feel the emotion that almost startles, when happiness falls."
(Rainer Maria Rilke)

Dear Friends,

I think we have happiness wrong at times. We feel that if we work hard enough, if we push ourselves and get things in order, we will find happiness. Then life in its usual way throws us a curve ball, and we find ourselves questioning, doubting that we did wrong and are being punished; or, at times, what God did wrong and why doesn't he care.

That's why I love the gospel exhortation this Sunday to be like kids. Kids have the inherent ability (before the teen years!!!) to be happy and not think too much about the future, to live in the moment, and find joy in very simple things.

Let's remember that joy is a gift of the Holy Spirit, and once we accept at our core that our lives are a gift, it becomes much easier to live happily, from the inside out. Then we can spread the joy! We literally don't sweat the small stuff knowing that in the end, for the believer, it is all small stuff, held close to the big heart of God.

Have a blessed week. Thanks for the kind welcome I am being offered as your new pastor.

Sincerely, with love,
Fr. Tim
