We are a welcoming Eucharistic community committed to growing together as disciples of Jesus Christ. As both a parish and the Mother Church of the Archdiocese, we serve as a beacon of faith, a patron of the arts and a haven and advocate for people who are poor and marginalized.

THE TRANSFIGURATION OF THE LORD

Jesus took Peter, James, and his brother, John, and led them up a high mountain by themselves. And he was transfigured before them; his face shone like the sun and his clothes became white as light. - Mt 17:1-2

Cathedral News & Notes...

Pastor's Corner

Dear friends,

The Gospel this weekend begins by saying, "when Jesus learned of the death of John the Baptist, he withdrew in a boat to a deserted place by himself" (Matthew 14:13.) Jesus must have been saddened to the core after hearing of the death of his cousin and friend to look for a deserted place to be by himself.

Another similar episode we find in John 11: 35. The Lord's friend, Lazarus, had died. When Jesus and his disciples arrived in Bethany where Lazarus lived, the Lord asked to be taken to his friend's burial place, and then the Gospel says, "and Jesus wept."

The heart of Jesus is as sacred as tender and sensitive. It is this "thin skin" of his heart that allows him to feel compassion and mercy and to plunge himself into the depths of the human drama to heal and redeem it.

The Gospel for this weekend also says that, as Jesus was heading to that deserted place to mourn the death of his friend, he encountered a vast crowd who had followed him across the lake and, in seeing the crowd, "...[the Lord's] heart was moved with pity for [the crowd], and he cured the sick" (Matthew 14:14.)

As we prepare for a new school year in our families, especially at our Family of Five and our great Catholic East school, I invite you and I to never lose sight of the fact that carrying out the mission of Jesus Christ also demands a heart no different than his, and why not, also a thin skin.

Fr. Carlos

Our next 13-week, Grief Support Group begins on Tuesday, August 8 – Tuesday, October 31, from 6 PM – 8 PM, at the Old St. Mary Parish Office.

Grief is a difficult journey, and it can feel like you're walking alone in the dark without a flashlight. It's easy to wonder if you're moving forward or simply wandering in circles, but joining a grief support group can lead you in the right direction. Registration is required. Please contact Terri Balash, Director of Pastoral Care, at 414-469-6173 or tbalash@ffpmke.org.
