Cathedral News & Notes...

Pastor's Corner

The calendar has turned to September, meaning things are changing. Summer will soon be a thing of the past, and students have and will be returning to school. The summer flew by, but I am excited for the next phase of parish life: the school year.

Speaking of phases, the Gospel this weekend is a continuation of last weekend when we heard Peter's great confession, "You are the Christ, the Son of the living God." Jesus praises Peter and builds the church upon Peter, giving him great authority.

Immediately following last week's Gospel is this week when Peter does not take kindly to the news that Jesus will be killed. Peter did not understand that Jesus needed to die to be risen to new life. It shows the struggle in Peter between holiness and sin. We all struggle between trying to be holy and falling into sin.

It is clear in my short time in these parishes that people truly desire holiness. One of the great gifts of my priesthood is to hear people's sins in the confessional and be an instrument for God's mercy by forgiving your sins. As we all continue to struggle with the fight between holiness and sin, let us continue to run to confession and thank God for the gifts he has bestowed on us.

God Bless,

Fr. Joseph

Open Door Café: Item of the Week

Every week there will be a new "item of the week" for donations to the Open Door Café (found in the announcements and bulletin). The item of the week for September 10 is Fruit or chewy granola bars. Please place them in the bins by the doors labeled for the Open Door Café. At the ODC, we witness God's boundless love each day: in the hundreds of individual volunteers who nurture a warm environment for our hot lunch; bag lunch and hygiene kit distribution; by our donors who give generously to keep us cooking, through the dedication of our mission-focused volunteers and staff; for the support of hunger fighters like Hunger Task Force and Feeding America; in the courage of our guests to enter the Open Door Café after doors have been closed on them. If you have any questions, please contact Idalia Nieves-Reyes at idalianieves-reyes@stjohnscathedral.org.

September 9/10: Fruit or chewy granola bars

September 16/17: Men underwear

September 23/24: Sweets (family size multi packs)
