Our Mission

We are a welcoming Eucharistic community committed to growing together as disciples of Jesus Christ. As both a parish and the Mother Church of the Archdiocese, we serve as a beacon of faith, a patron of the arts and a haven and advocate for people who are poor and marginalized

FORGIVE

“Lord, if my brother sins against me, how often must I forgive? As many as seven times?” Jesus answered, “I say to you, not seven times but seventy-seven times.”

MATTHEW 18:21-22

Cathedral News & Notes...

Pastor's Corner

Friends,

"Could anyone nourish anger against another and expect healing from the LORD?
Could anyone refuse mercy to another like himself, can he seek pardon for his own sins?"

This weekend, the Word of God challenges us all in supernatural ways. I say, "supernatural ways" because forgiveness and mercy can only be granted by God and with the help of God.

We have all been wronged in bigger and/or smaller ways. We too have wronged others in bigger and/or smaller ways.

We hope God will forgive us every time we sincerely ask for his pardon, and He truly does, and, at the same time, he sends us forth saying, "now you go, and do unto others what I have done unto you."

We can only cling to past offenses for so long. At some point, the Christian ought to let go of past offenses and negative narratives regarding others, thus letting God be the judge of all things and peoples.

This weekend, I invite us all to go to confession often. There, we experience the challenge of asking for forgiveness and the beauty of being forgiven by an all-loving God.

This experience of celebrating the Sacrament of Confession often will not only restore us to the life of grace, but also help us grow in the art of asking for forgiveness and the art of forgiving others.

Sincerely, with love,
Fr. Carlos

September 23/24: Sweets (family size multi packs)
September 30/October 1: Socks (men sizes)

World Day of Migrants and Refugees

Pope Francis has asked Catholics to remember displaced people on September 24.

First, let us pray for the men, women and especially children who were forced to move because wars, famine or intolerable living conditions. Second, learn more about the issues and what you could do to help by contacting Catholic Relief Services (CRS) at CRS.org.
