Pastor's Corner

There is work to be done.

The landowner in today's Gospel keeps going back for more people to help him in the vineyard. As the day progresses, he still needs more help to get the work done. The work is so necessary to complete that he is willing to pay a full day's wage for an hour of work.

The same is true for God, who will keep asking us to work to build up the kingdom. The wage is the same for all. It does not matter if you have been helping build up the kingdom for years or for a few days, the Lord gives us grace to help us build up the kingdom.

My encouragement for everyone is to allow the grace to sustain you in the vineyard. Keep begging for grace to help build up the kingdom of God. There is a lot of work to be done; we need everyone the Lord invites to help.

With love,

Fr. Joseph

World Day of Migrants and Refugees

Pope Francis has asked Catholics to remember displaced people on September 24.

First, let us pray for the men, women and especially children who were forced to move because wars, famine or intolerable living conditions. Second, learn more about the issues and what you could do to help by contacting Catholic Relief Services (CRS) at CRS.org.

Give the Gift of English Language

The St. Michael and St. Rose Literacy Program teaches English language skills to Burmese refugees, Hispanic immigrants, and Congolese refugees who are currently settling in Milwaukee. Our program needs tutors to support new students who are coming to our program for English language support for daily living, health and employment. Tutors receive training to teach English. Teaching is on a one-to-one basis once a week. The literacy program is located at the St. Rose Parish Center, 540 N. 31st Street. If you are interested in supporting an adult student with English language skills please call Deborah Lindberg at 414-906-0458.

Reflecting on the Sunday Readings

We invite individuals to share and reflect on the upcoming Sunday readings on the first and third Mondays of each month. In a small group setting, we break open God's Word, allowing it to speak to our lives and to challenge us to grow in our understanding of who God is, who we are, and how God is calling us to love. The group meets in person in the parish center at Old St. Mary beginning at 7:00 PM (835 N Milwaukee St.). Our next meeting is Monday, October 2. For further information contact our Pastoral Associate, Chad Griesel, at cgriesel@ffpmke.org or 414-271-6577.

Do you simply want to grow in an understanding of your faith? RCIA, the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults, is a place where adults of any or no faith can explore questions of faith and prepare to join the Catholic Church. Our sessions are underway and are held in the parish center at Old St. Mary (835 N Milwaukee St). See the parish website for more details and contact our Pastoral Associate, Chad Griesel, to get started at cgriesel@ffpmke.org or 414-271-6577.

If you attend Mass at any of the Catholic Communities of Our Lady of Divine Providence, Ss. Peter and Paul, Old St. Mary, and Three Holy Women, you can place your offertory envelope from your home parish in the basket and it will be forwarded for you.
