Cathedral News & Notes...

Pastor's Corner

"If he cries out to me, I will hear him; for I am compassionate."

Dear friends,

In the readings for this Sunday, we hear perhaps one of the most revelatory texts about who God is and the kind of heart he has. God has a tender, soft spot in his heart for the poor, and if anyone ever wrongs them, "I will surely hear their cry," says the Lord.

We are all poor, so in that way, we can all be sure that we are on God's good side. However, did I know that I was poor? Do I acknowledge my poverty, that is, my utter dependence on God for everything? "Blessed are the poor in Spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven" (Matthew 5:3.)

Now, in some instances some people are called to a place of authority or that of a "higher rank," according to the labels that this passing world has created to structure groups of people and organizations. In such cases, one can only ask God for his heart and for the gift of Fear of the Lord to treat others with respect and reverence, as one would treat God's favorites. For, as God says, "if you ever wrong them and they cry out to me, I will surely hear their cry."

With love,
Fr. Carlos

Reflecting on the Sunday Readings

We invite individuals to share and reflect on the upcoming Sunday readings on the first and third Mondays of each month. In a small group setting, we break open God's Word, allowing it to speak to our lives and to challenge us to grow in our understanding of who God is, who we are, and how God is calling us to love. The group meets in person in the parish center at Old St. Mary beginning at 7:00pm (835 N Milwaukee St.). Our next meeting is Monday, November 6. For further information contact our Pastoral Associate, Chad Griesel, at cgriesel@ffpmke.org or 414-271-6577.

If you attend Mass at any of the Catholic Communities of Our Lady of Divine Providence, Ss. Peter and Paul, Old St. Mary, and Three Holy Women, you can place your offertory envelope from your home parish in the basket and it will be forwarded for you.
