Pastor's Corner

"Any fool can know.
The point is to understand."
(Albert Einstein)

Dear Friends,

Our first reading this Sunday, from the Book of Wisdom, sets forth the beauty of wisdom and, our Gospel points out, that it is something we need to work at. Needless to say, we live in the information age, but sadly lack wisdom in so many ways. We all have experienced folks who are really "smart," but lack in common sense and have the personality which rubs the wrong way as a know-it-all. Wisdom has much more to do with who we are than what we know.

The preaching of Jesus always seems to hit home because he knows us so well. Our relationship with him will provide everything we need to be truly wise, if we follow his example in all things. I find myself saying over and over again "What would Jesus do in this situation? How would Jesus deal with people who present challenges? He always says just the right things, and I pray daily for his help in my rather limited way of doing things.

There is a great quote from the Dalai Lama: "A smart person knows what to say. A wise person knows whether to say it or not." Good advice!

Have a blessed peaceful week, as the world continues to struggle with so much! Pray, pray, pray for peace!

Sincerely,

Fr. Tim

We remember in a special way our Veterans, and all who are in Active Duty. Their sacrifices and commitment are never forgotten, respected, appreciated.

Reflecting on the Sunday Readings

We invite individuals to share and reflect on the upcoming Sunday readings on the first and third Mondays of each month. In a small group setting, we break open God's Word, allowing it to speak to our lives and to challenge us to grow in our understanding of who God is, who we are, and how God is calling us to love. The group meets in person in the parish center at Old St. Mary beginning at 7:00pm (835 N Milwaukee St.). Our next meeting is Monday, November 20. For further information contact our Pastoral Associate, Chad Griesel, at cgriesel@ffpmke.org or 414-271-6577.

If you attend Mass at any of the Catholic Communities of Our Lady of Divine Providence, Ss. Peter and Paul, Old St. Mary, and Three Holy Women, you can place your offertory envelope from your home parish in the basket and it will be forwarded for you.
