MUSINGS FROM THE DEACON CAVE

Dining with Pharisees on Labor Day

On Monday we celebrate the efforts of all workers to the well-being of our society. It is a day that has been traditionally marked with parades, sports, travelling, and outings. It is also the time when many parents cannot help but crack a small smile knowing that the kids will be in full swing at school and the household regains some normalcy! The recognition of the efforts of workers to our society is a good thing. It is also something that should be put into context.

In the gospel today, Jesus is at the home of one of pharisees for a meal. As he observes people jostling for positions of honor at the table, he tells a story that reminds the listener to be careful about how much they exalt themselves lest someone with more prominence removes them from their place (with much embarrassment). If we apply this to our work, then we should be more concerned with the contribution we make than with the recognition we receive.

Labor comes in a huge array of endeavors and is not limited to what we do "at a job." Some of the most important labor we do happens close to home. It is in the laundry we do, the dishes we clean, the yard we mow, and the countless other tasks we do for the betterment of our families. These labors probably don't get the recognition they deserve. But if we go back to the gospel, these are the kind of labors that, when done out of love, will have Jesus say to us, "My friend, move to a higher position at my table." Let us all be humble in what we do.

Happy Labor Day!

Deacon Mike

We would like to wish a Birthday or Wedding Anniversary blessing to all who are celebrating during the month of September. We pray your Birthday or Wedding Anniversary is one of blessings, joy, peace, and of love with family and friends.

"The LORD bless you and keep you, the LORD make his face shine on you and be gracious to you; the LORD turn his face toward you and give you peace."

Numbers 6:24-26
