LIVE THE LITURGY Inspiration for the week

Ultimately, what does God promise to give us when we pray? The short answer to that question is God. God promises to give Himself to us in prayer. Prayer is about union with God, not receiving favors. When God comes to us in prayer, His presence comes with faith, hope, and love. When we find these virtues enhanced and nurtured, we know that our prayer has been heard and answered. When we seek out, listen to, and live by these virtues we find ourselves led back to God and more united with the Divine Presence. We struggle with what we want God to do and how we want our prayer validated. That's what makes Jesus' prayer, the Our Father, so perfect. It celebrates a deepening intimate relationship of trust between our Creator and us. When we persistently cry out for God in love, how can that prayer go unanswered?

SAINT OF THE WEEK

Saint James the Apostle is also called James, son of Zebedee, or James the Greater to distinguish him from the other James in Jesus' group of twelve. Most of what we know about Saint James is recorded in the New Testament. He and his brother John were collected by Jesus along the sea of Galilee. Matthew 4:18-22 tells the story of Jesus calling first Simon Peter and his brother Andrew and then the sons of Zebedee. In Mark 3:17 the brothers receive a nickname from Jesus who calls them "sons of thunder" because of their many extreme reactions, like that in Luke 9:54 when they offer to call down fire on a Samaritan village.

Saint James was part of Jesus' intimate circle, a witness to the Transfiguration, the resurrection of Jarius' daughter, and the agony in the garden of Gethsemane. In A.D. 44 Herod Agrippa had "James, the brother of John, killed by the sword." (Acts 12:2) He is the only apostle whose martyrdom is written of in the New Testament.

According to Spanish tradition, his body was taken to Santiago de Compostela, Spain where his relics were rediscovered in 9th century. This tradition has sometimes been attributed to a passage in the Song of Roland which tells of St. James appearing to Charlemagne in a dream, prophesying that Charlemagne would conquer the Moors in Spain. This was followed by a vision of stars which if followed would lead to the saint's lost tomb. In the Middle Ages Compostela was a hugely popular pilgrimage site. The saint's relics continue to rest in the cathedral there and one can still undertake the pilgrimage.

Book Recommendation

Saint Joseph was chosen by God to help raise Jesus. In all four Gospels there are no words attributed to St. Joseph – but plenty of actions. His witness reveals incredible truths to us about masculinity and what it means to “be a man.” Spoiler alert: It isn’t what our current culture tells us.

Man Enough is a powerful reflection on the life and example of St. Joseph and the many ways that he challenges us to live as holier men and disciples of Jesus Christ. Words are important but our actions speak volumes.

It is time to ask, “Am I man enough to follow Christ?”

A Prayer to the God of Goodness

Based on Psalm 16

Keep me safe God.

You always shelter me from harm.

You are my Lord.

You provide so many good things to me.

Don't let me forget that.

My happiness does not come from things.

I don't want to get distracted and forget about you.

I know you are the source of goodness.

I see all you have given me.

I am secure in your care.

Blessed are you Lord!

You are always with me.

You never forget me.

You bring me peace.

So I am filled with joy.

You will always protect me from evil.

You show me the way to live.

You are my joy!

Amen.

WORSHIP & MEDITATION

FIRST READING

"Please, let not my Lord grow angry if I speak up this last time. What if there are at least ten there?" He replied, "For the sake of those ten, I will not destroy it." (Gn 18:32)

PSALM

Lord, on the day I called for help, you answered me. (Ps 138)

SECOND READING

He brought you to life along with him, having forgiven us all our transgressions. (Col 2:13)

GOSPEL

"And I tell you, ask and you will receive; seek and you will find; knock and the door will be opened to you. For everyone who asks, receives; and the one who seeks, finds; and to the one who knocks, the door will be opened." (Lk 11:9-10)

GOSPEL MEDITATION

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

Meister Eckhart asks, "Who is the man whose prayers God always hears?" He answers, "God hears the man who appeals to God as God. When, however, man appeals to God, hoping for some worldly good, he is not appealing to God at all, but to what he is asking of God. He is trying to make God his servant. On this point, St. Augustine says: 'You pray to what you love, for true whole prayer is nothing but love!' Thus, we pray to what we love, and no one rightly prays to God but he who prays for God and has nothing on his mind but God." We struggle with what we want God to do and how we want our prayer validated. Meister Eckhart is correct. We often want God to be our servant. We further struggle with trusting that God knows what we need and that His will is best.

God's will is not some predetermined outcome of events that we must simply suggest. "Thy will be done" is not an invocation beckoning us to accept a particular state of affairs passively. Rather, it is the humble and confident placement of ourselves in the presence of the God we seek, whom we call "Father." We must remember that God is the God of life and light. It is from nothing that God brings something and from the darkness that God brings life. Prayer allows us to seek the One we love with the assurance that all will be well regardless of what course the events of our lives take. God is not about passive submission but the humble trust of love.

That's what makes the Lord's Prayer the perfect prayer. It provides us with proper disposition and focus, putting in line all of the essential relationships of our lives. It celebrates and fosters the ever-deepening relationship of trust we have with our Creator. It also calls us to keep open the doors of love between our brothers and sisters with the power that comes with forgiveness. If in one's darkest hour they can find the resolve to fervently pray this perfect prayer of Jesus' conviction, then there is no doubt that God will hear their plea, reach out in love, and bring them ever closer to His heart. What more does one need to weather the storms of life besides faith, hope, and love? These are God's most perfect gifts and all we really need.

Several months ago, with a sense of joy and optimism, our Diocese launched the Inspired by the Spirit Campaign! Under the leadership of Bishop William Callahan, this all-parish effort is an extraordinary opportunity for all parishioners to invest in the present and future of the Catholic Church in West Central Wisconsin. The initial pilot phase of 21 parishes is coming to a close and has already raised $11,539,992 million toward the combined $40 million goal. What a tremendous start!

At this time, our parish has begun preparations to join the effort in the early fall of this year. While this is a combined diocesan and parish campaign, the majority (65%) of the funds raised will be returned to our parish! We are being asked to raise $400,000. If we meet our goal St. Agnes' would receive $260,000. These funds would be utilized for replacing and repaving our parking lot and driveway which will cost $200,000. The remaining $60,000 will go toward replacing the furnaces for the church, hall, and school rooms. When we achieve and exceed our goal, our parish portion of funds raised will increase to 80%.

The share that goes to our diocese is going toward three legitimate needs:

Our Holy Cross Diocese Center needs repairs done to it so $5 million would go toward that. They are looking to Restore the Christ the King Chapel stained-glass windows, upgrade security, HVAC, electrical, Wifi, update residential areas for Active and Senior Priests, and provide a safe, cost-efficient, comfortable, and prayer environment for all who live, work or visit the Center.

$3 million will go toward establishing The Catholic Foundation of West Central Wisconsin. This was founded with great care and vision to ensure that the needs – both physical and spiritual – of the Catholic community will never be overlooked. This Foundation, initiated with both clergy and lay leadership, was created for the ability to assist every Catholic ministry in the Diocese including parishes, schools, social service agencies and health care facilities, seminarians, priests, deacons, and religious, so that they may continue to flourish and serve the people of God.

Our Diocese Annual Appeal yearly amount is included in our goal. This funds the operations of our diocese and pays for the education of our seminarians

We will provide more information about the campaign in the next two months. Please prayerfully consider making a pledge if you are able to when we officially begin the campaign. If you would like more information you could talk with me or visit the campaign website at inspiredbythespirit.org.

-Fr. Greg

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

When I Called, You Answered

Some of us have that friend about whom we are constantly discovering new things. Maybe we've known this person for ten or even twenty years, and one day at lunch we'll find out they're a direct descendant of a dead president or they once met a major celebrity.

"You never asked," they'll say with a shrug.

As annoying as this can be, it makes perfect sense, doesn't it? We never asked. There is something strangely sacred about the act of asking for something. It requires humility. It requires grace. It requires us to be awake, to be aware, to be vulnerable.

Too often we fall into a pattern of entitlement, even when it comes to information. We go through life thinking that a great cosmic conveyor belt of what we want is going to roll on past us, and we'll barely even have to extend our arms. We read our Bible and we hear all these amazing promises from the Father who loves us, and we get sort of complacent. He's got this, we think, and we shut our eyes to take a snooze on the road trip of life, confident that someone else is going to look out for stop signs and wrong turns.

It's true: God's got this. He is going to take care of us. But He wants us to be in relationship with Him. He wants us to be an active, receptive participant in our own salvation. See his patience with Abraham's entreaties on behalf of the righteous of Sodom: He wants to answer, not simply to tell.

He wants us to stay awake for the drive.

— Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

For information about the St. Agnes Cemetery, please call Deb in the office at 715-359-5675 and she can help you if you are considering purchasing a cemetery plot. The cost of a full graves for parishioners is $550.00 each and cremation graves are $250.00 and will hold two urns.

Think about it: It is easy to see God's beauty in a glorious sunset or in ocean waves crashing on a beach. But can you find the holiness in a struggle for life?
