Advent/Christmas Daily Prayer Books

The Little Blue Books for Advent have arrived! They are available in the Gathering Area and the Parish Office. A donation of $1 per book is suggested.

The Little Blue Book provides the framework for you to enjoy one of our oldest traditions of prayer called Lectio Divina, sacred reading. The books take a short scripture passage and give us the opportunity to let God speak to us through words, guiding us to reflections that sometimes seem to come from nowhere. People are often surprised at how easy it is to pray this way and how deep such prayers can be. It can change your day and even your life!

Pastor's Out-of-Parish Obligations

During the first week of Advent, I will be honoring a commitment I made a year ago to offer a "Day of Advent Reflection" for the Norbertine Canons of Our Lady of Daylesford Abbey (our daughter abbey) outside of Philadelphia, on Wednesday, December 1. I will fly out of Green Bay at noon on Tuesday and will return for the Bishop's Presbyteral Council meetings (of which I am a member) throughout the day on Thursday. I am grateful for my Norbertine Confreres, Father Seamus Neilson, O.Praem, and Father Bradley Vanden Branden, O. Praem., who will handle all liturgical and sacramental obligations while I am away. -Father Jim

Please Let Us Know

At rest in the Lord + + +

Earl Thyssen, 86, a charter member of the parish and husband of parishioner Donna Thyssen, passed away on November 13, and was accorded Christian burial here on November 19. Earl served in the U. S. Army and then worked as a machinist at U.S. Paper, Nicolet Paper, and Richco Structures. He enjoyed woodworking, taking care of his cats, watching the Packers, traveling, spending summers in Lakewood, and time with his family. In addition to Donna, his wife of 61 years, Earl is survived by two daughters and sons-in-law, grandchildren, siblings, and extended family.

Omer Vander Bloomen, 90, brother of parishioner Sr. Jeanne Vander Bloomen, passed away on November 16, and was accorded Christian burial in a private service at Mount Calvary Cemetery. Omer served in the Navy Reserve and the U. S. Army during the Korean War. He retired from the Green Bay Correctional Institution and was a longtime member of the Ashwaubenon V.F.W. and past commander of the American Legion.

+ + May Earl and Omer rest in Christ's peace! ++

Dear Friends,

While our Nation pauses to celebrate Thanksgiving on the fourth Thursday of November each year, in our Roman Catholic tradition we do so every time we assemble at the altar, whether we gather on a weekday, Sunday, or Holy Day. "Eucharist" literally means, "thanksgiving," our opportunity to give thanks and praise to God for, "every good and perfect gift that comes from above!" As your pastor, a grateful recipient of Our Lady of Lourdes, I find it is an overwhelming task to adequately "count the blessings" that we share here at Lourdes; but let me give a quick stab at naming just a few!

This past weekend I attended my first "Night of Keys" at the National Railroad Museum. Not only am I aware that this is the largest annual fundraiser for Our Lady of Lourdes Catholic School, but over the past few weeks I've become equally aware of all the time and energy that goes into the organization of Saturday night's activities. It was an incredible time for all who attended, myself included. I will need to brush up on my rather sophomoric culinary skills given I will be working at two dinners that were auctioned off last Saturday night. Thanks so much to Sarah Brooks Lawler and Nicci Zwiefelhofer for bringing so many volunteers together to raise an incredible amount of money to benefit our school. Our kids will benefit greatly from your creative energy. What an incredible night!

Another event that I experienced for the first time this fall was the annual Packer Tailgate Party that has taken place in recent years at De Pere's Swan Club. This event was completely sold out— an incredible gathering for just shy of 900 eager donors! My Confrere, Father Seamus Neilson, O. Praem., joined me for the event, as well as some of my former parishioners from Chicago. We were all amazed at how well this event was organized. I am so grateful to my dear friends Gerry Byrne and Mike Sprangers - and so many friends of theirs - who have organized this event for so many years. Even if we had merely, "broken even" financially, this would have been a huge success. But the incredible generosity of our friends - from near and far - have consistently benefited the OLOL technology fund, helping us advance our mission in any number of creative and innovative ways! Thank you for your generosity!

Away from the Railroad Museum and the Swan Club, I am amazed week-after-week by those dedicated parishioners who serve our parish community in so many ways. Thank you to our liturgical ministers who continually give of themselves to prosper the liturgical life of our parish. Quite simply, we could not "feed the multitudes" without the selfless service of so many ministers of the Word, Eucharistic ministers, ministers of hospitality, gift bearers and Mass servers - both young and old! They are all serving the faithful by the oversight of our dedicated sacristans whose contributions to the common good are profoundly appreciated; I extend my profound thanks to Patrick and Pam Lennon and Diane Mooren who serve each day and week as the sacristans for our daily Mass and school Mass.

I am also most grateful for the members of our various committees who have offered their time and talent in so many ways. In particular I'd like to acknowledge those who have been decorating the church and narthex for several special events through the course of the autumn under the capable direction of Sue and Gary Yakoubek. Such decent surroundings complement many beautiful liturgies over these past weeks: Mass for the Loss of a Child, All Saints Day, All Souls Day, our Marian Procession and Mass for our faith formation families, Vespers for Modern Day Martyrs—all have been incredibly moving; the participation of so many volunteers and worshippers has been inspiring.

And speaking of the liturgical life at Lourdes, we have celebrated many funerals since my arrival. Our funeral choir offers an incredible gift to our families amidst such bereavement; their efforts will not be forgotten: thank you for your "corporal work of mercy!" Thanks, too, to Bonnie Sanders, Jean Gilson, and their committee of cheerful women who feed these families, giving the mourners a special opportunity to 'tell the stories' of those we offer Catholic burial. In my short time here, every funeral here at Lourdes has been represented by the services of Ryan Funeral Home. I am most pleased to state that I have been very good friends with every owner of our local funeral home since Bob Ryan was running the show! We are blessed by the sincere and heart-felt dedication of Lourdes' "very own" Scottie and Carrie Baeten, such dear people!

Heading outside, I am proud that our campus also looks so beautiful, wouldn't you agree? While Fall is the most beautiful time of the year - my personal, biased opinion (!), fall can also be a high-maintenance season. I am grateful for so much effort expended by Rick and Terry Johnson who are constantly tending the area gardens; and thanks, also, to John Fink who has been joining Rick, in mowing the lawn and removing the leaves from the property.

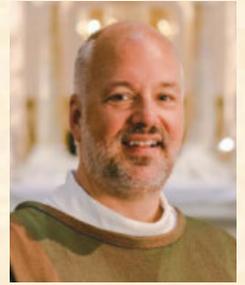

And through it all, our dedicated staff continues to serve the parish in such competent, caring, and dedicated ways. The number of hours they contribute - even after the work day is finished - is an incredible gift to the parish that simply goes beyond words. I am very moved that each of them see their work as "ministry!" Our parish is blessed, indeed, by such diligence.

Folks, there's no doubt that I've overlooked many. Not to worry, I'll make mention of so many others as time goes on! Nevertheless, I must thank all of you in a somewhat general way: the kindness of so many of you and your words of support and encouragement through cards, calls and emails, or simple well-wishes before or after Mass is something that invigorates my spirit. Our parish has an incredibly blessed demeanor; I never take that for granted.

As I stated in my homily on Thanksgiving Day, Meister Eckhart one stated, "If the only prayer you ever offer is 'thank you,' that would have been enough!" Dear Lourdes, for all that you do, but more importantly, for all that you are: Thank You!

Happy Thanksgiving, Still!

Father James Baraniak, O. Praem.

"Blessed are You Among Women..."

A women's faith-sharing group for Advent 2021

December 8, 15, 22 - 10:00 -11:00 am

The 1st Sunday of Advent is November 28. This holy season of Advent invites us to ponder, to ready our hearts as we anticipate the celebration of the great Incarnation event of God becoming human. With so much noise and busyness around us, we can easily forget the awe and wonder of this world-changing event.

Come join us as we reflect on the stories of Mary and Elizabeth: the Annunciation, the Visitation, and the Nativity of Jesus' humble birth. We'll use scripture, prayer, song, and conversation. How are the stories of Mary and Elizabeth interwoven with our own story?

This faith-sharing group will be facilitated by parishioner Robin Therese. Please RSVP to the Parish Office at 920-336-4033.

Mass Intention Requests for 2022

We are still scheduling Mass intentions for 2022. You are welcome to select one weekend Mass and one weekday Mass, or two weekday Masses. Masses are $10 each. Please contact the Parish Office at 920 336-4033 to schedule intentions.

It's Not Too Early To Think About Year-End Giving!!

If you are 70 1/2 years or older and have an IRA, please consider making a year-end Qualified Charitable Distribution (QCD) to OLOL. QCDs are limited to the amount that would otherwise be taxed as ordinary income. Those who must take a required minimum distribution (RMD) may direct up to $100,000 annually to charitable organizations without treating the distribution as taxable income. QCDs don't require that you itemize. This means that with the recent changes to the tax laws, you may be able to take advantage of the higher standard deduction but still use a QCD for charitable giving. This gift opportunity is especially beneficial for people who do not need their required minimum distribution. QCDs, however, count toward complying with the RMD requirement. To make a gift, simply direct your IRA administrator to make a charitable distribution to OLOL. As always, consult your tax advisor.

School and Young Family News!

News from the Principal

Dear OLOL Parishioners,

Happy Thanksgiving weekend!

Thanksgiving has long been my favorite holiday. Firstly, it lands in my favorite season, fall. Beyond this, however, my reasons for favoring it have changed over the years. As a child it was my favorite holiday because it was a time that I was able to get together with my cousins. Our family had moved away from our extended family, so Thanksgiving was a special time when we could spend time with them. As a young adult, it was a time to get together with friends that were home from college. As a young family man, I enjoyed the opportunity to create memories for my children.

While these reasons for my love of Thanksgiving still remain, through life experience I think I finally understand what Thanksgiving is really all about. It is about having an attitude of gratitude. It's taken me a long time to fully embrace this philosophy at all times, but once I did it was a paradigm shift that made life so much easier.

Although I am not musically inclined, song lyrics are an important part of who I am. There was a song I enjoyed in my youth that had the lyrics "I thank the Lord that there are people out there like you," and "I thank the Lord for the people I have found." These lyrics have a tremendous impact when you have the attitude of being thankful for everything in your life—both success and struggles. This attitude of gratitude greatly impacts relationships: I look at every relationship as an opportunity to be a blessing to both the other person and me.

Being truly thankful in your heart means spending more time focusing on the blessing in our lives as opposed to our frustrations. We don't know exactly what Christ is doing as he watches over us, but I am confident that He celebrates us more than he stew in frustrated with us. As a call to become more Holy and Christ-like, I feel that we should do the same for others and ourselves. Could you imagine what our society would be like if we were able to share grace with others at the same level of grace that God has with us? That is a society that I would love to be a part of.

I hope you had a blessed Thanksgiving filled with gratitude and grace.

"A spirit of thankfulness is one of the most distinctive marks of a Christian whose heart is attuned to the Lord. Thank God in the midst of trials and every persecution" - Billy Graham

Jeffrey Young
