What does Family Mean to You?

Last weekend we celebrated not only Christmas, but the feast of the Holy Family. Each one of us probably has a different idea of what family means. For many of us, family means everything. There is nothing we wouldn't do for our family; we couldn't imagine not have our family around and everyone getting along and loving each other. For others, family means to show up for holidays, whether traveling across the miles or just driving across town. And, for some, family ties are non-existent because of conflict or estrangement.

There are many meanings of family that fall between these few examples, and it comes down to being a very personal, and for some, a private matter. Hopefully, for some who fit into the later of my examples, this new year might bring change and reconciliation between family members. I encourage a reconciliation before it is too late—before someone passes away and reconciliation turns into regret.

Last year, for the feast of the Holy Family, I wrote a poem (my first one ever) that I would like to share with you. Hopefully you can take something encouraging away from it, and perhaps it might get you thinking about family and what it should or could mean to you.

Happy New Year!

Deacon Mike

Family Is

Family is beginning with love,
Starts with two, then three, then four, maybe more.

Family is a crying baby, a tummy ache, dirty diapers
And sleepless nights, rocking until the morning light.

Family is being on the floor wrestling around,
Piggyback rides and falling down.

Family is hugs & kisses, a gentle touch, letting them
Know they are loved so much.

Family is teaching them to pray,
And to love the Lord, to know Him and thank Him
Every day of their life, to rely on Him in the good times,
And through the strife.

Family is arguing over so many things,
A hurtful word, the slamming door,
I am sorry brings you back to where you were before.

Family is sacrifice and compromise, doing without,
maybe next paycheck for the money has run out.

Family is guiding to prepare them for life,
Hoping their choices turn out alright.

Family is seeing them leave the nest,
Finding the love of their life and wishing them all the best.

Family is reading a grandchild a book, to spoil them, sugar them
Up, send them home and wish the parents good luck.

Family is watching a parent grow older, their needs might seem
Like a chore, the roles have changed from many years before.

Family is giving permission when it is time to say goodbye,
A true act of love, knowing they are going to the Father above.

Then all we have are memories of the sorrows and bliss,
And to remember that's what family is.

After Alpha

What is After Alpha? After Alpha is an opportunity for all age groups to share and deepen their Faith. Please join us the 2nd and 4th Mondays of each month starting January 10. We will meet from 6-7:30 p.m. in the Social Hall. We will view and discuss "The Wild Goose" series, which invites us to encounter the Holy Spirit. We will have a simple meal and good conversation. Please RSVP to the Parish Office at (920) 336-4033. We hope to see there!

THE MINISTRY OF
THE WILD GOOSE

Please Let Us Know

If a loved one is in the hospital or has moved to a nursing home or assisted living facility and would like us to be notified, please call the Parish Office at (920)336-4033. We don't always receive calls from the facilities and want to be sure to stay in touch.

Mass Intention Requests for 2022

We are still scheduling Mass intentions for 2022. You are welcome to select one weekend Mass and one weekday Mass, or two weekday Masses. Masses are $10 each. Please contact the Parish Office at (920) 336-4033 to schedule intentions.

Qualified Charitable Distributions

If you are 70 1/2 years or older and have an IRA, please consider making a year-end Qualified Charitable Distribution (QCD) to OLOL. QCDs are limited to the amount that would otherwise be taxed as ordinary income. Those who must take a required minimum distribution (RMD) may direct up to $100,000 annually to charitable organizations without treating the distribution as taxable income. QCDs don't require that you itemize. This means that with the recent changes to the tax laws, you may be able to take advantage of the higher standard deduction but still use a QCD for charitable giving. This gift opportunity is especially beneficial for people who do not need their required minimum distribution. QCDs, however, count toward complying with the RMD requirement. To make a gift, simply direct your IRA administrator to make a charitable distribution to OLOL. As always, consult your tax advisor.

News from the Principal

Dear Parishioners,

Happy New Year!

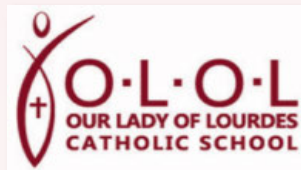

I have recently been introduced to the Hallow app. If you haven't heard of Hallow, I would recommend you learn more about it. I just listened to a presentation that compared two large bodies of water in the Holy Land. It compared the Sea of Galilee and the Dead Sea. The Sea of Galilee is brimming with life while the Dead Sea, as you can imagine by the name, is void of any life. The Sea of Galilee consistently has water constantly moving in and out of it through run-off from the mountains entering it and water exiting through the Jordan River. The Dead Sea only has water coming in through the Jordan River, with no way for it to leave.

The presenter suggested that we have the choice whether we want to be like the Sea of Galilee (brimming with life) or the Dead Sea (a holding tank void of life). He challenged us to substitute the word water with grace when we compare ourselves to these bodies of water. God gives us grace everyday and, hopefully, we are given grace by a number of people in our lives. We can promote life by taking that grace and passing it along to God or others in our lives like the Sea of Galilee. We can also accept grace from God and others and just hold it for ourselves. This doesn't promote life or bring out the best in others. In simplest terms we can be givers (Sea of Galilee) or takers (Dead Sea).

I think a good New Year's Resolution is to be open and aware of the grace that is bestowed on each of us by God and others and take that grace and pass it along to others in our lives.

May God bless you and glory is but grace perfected"* -
