Winter and Mass

As the thick of winter weather and illness approaches, we would like to issue a few reminders:

- If you have fragile health, or are feeling at all unwell, please be prudent in deciding whether or not to come to Mass. Out of charity for yourself and those around you, please consider livestreaming the Mass. God understands. There's no sin in this option when you respect your limitations or the safety of those around you.
- A wave and smile at the Sign of Peace is a fine substitute to shaking hands
- Please consider receiving Communion on the hand or waiting until the end of the line to receive on the tongue to simplify distribution for our Ministers and ensure the safety of the Consecrated Host and others at Mass.
- It's happened a few times when weather has suddenly become so dangerous that we have cancelled Sunday Masses. We will let you know via the local news, Facebook, and Flocknote. Again, God understands.
- If school is closed for inclement weather or delayed, the Daily Mass is cancelled and the Parish Office is closed. Please stay home, relax, pray, and enjoy the gift from God.

Thanks for this consideration for each other!

At rest in the Lord + + +

Col. Charles Dallas "Dal" Wood, 91, father of our parishioner Mike (Peggy) Wood, passed away on December 17, and was accorded Christian burial through Ryan Funeral Home on December 27. Dal graduated from the University of Idaho with a bachelor's degree in forestry and later earned his master's degree. He was commissioned into the U. S. Marine Corps, serving tours in both the U. S. and overseas. He retired after 25 years, earning the rank of Colonel, and worked first as a registered land surveyor and then as a Certified Financial Planner and owner of Wood Financial. Dal held leadership roles in the Kiwanis Club and was a volunteer for Rawhide Boys Ranch. He enjoyed family gatherings, hunting, fishing, golfing, playing his ukulele, and traveling the world. He is also survived by his wife of 68 years, Lorna, five other children and their spouses, 16 grandchildren, and extended family.

Larry "Tex" Dellis, 77, uncle of parishioner Dawn (Jeff) Jindra, passed away on January 7, and was accorded Christian burial through Holy Trinity Catholic Church in Casco on January 15. Tex worked for GTE as a lineman for 35 years, but spent his life as a farmer. He had a collection of more than 100 John Deere and Allis Chalmers tractors. He enjoyed attending farm auctions, traveling, and spending time with family and friends. Tex is also survived by a brother and a sister, nieces and nephews, and extended family. He was preceded in death by his wife, Margaret.

+ + May Dal and Tex rest in Christ's peace! + +

Parish Celebration of Feast of Our Lady of Lourdes

The Feast of Our Lady of Lourdes is February 11. However, we will celebrate as a parish the weekend of February 12 and 13. Stay tuned for more information about the celebration of our parish Solemnity!

Blessing of Candles (Candlemas)

The blessing of candles will take place on Wednesday, February 2, at the 8:45 a.m. School Mass. We will offer blessed candles, but you may also bring your own candles from home if you would like. Blessed candles can be used in times of tragedy, crisis, or sickness as a helpful reminder of God's presence among us.

Old Palm Branches

We are collecting old palm branches until Sunday, February 27. Please put them in the trunk located in the Gathering Space near the stairs to the Social Hall. Thank you!

Sacrament of Baptism

We welcome Wyatt James Steele to the Living Body of Christ! May God continue to bless him always.

The Word of God

This weekend is all about the Word of God. That sounds a little odd because we read the Word of God at every Mass. But this weekend is different. This weekend, we go back to the foundation of why the Word of God has become part of our Catholic faith. It's why-we-do-what-we-do.

In the first reading we hear about Ezra. Ezra was a priest when the Jews came back from Babylonian Exile. As the people returned to Jerusalem, they saw the ruins of their temple...their church. And while others were concerned with rebuilding that temple, Ezra was concerned with rebuilding the Church. Not "the church," the building, but "the Church," the people of God. To help rebuild the Church, he needed to start back at the foundation. So he went out and publicly read God's word. He did something unheard of at the time. He took the scrolls, unrolled them in front of the people, and proclaimed them to all who were listening. But not only did he proclaim the Word, Ezra "broke it open" for the people. He interpreted God's Word for the people so they could understand it. He showed them how it was relevant to them. And Ezra led a spiritual revival (not just in word but in deeds) during a time of despair.

The story of Ezra leads us right into this weekend's Gospel. We find Jesus this weekend in Luke's Gospel, going through all of Galilee proclaiming God's Word. He too, "broke it open" for the people. Interpreting the sacred words and explaining it to the people so they could understand it. And finally, when in Nazareth, Jesus reads God's Word (spoken by the Prophet Isaiah) about who He was and why He came. His Word was not just ink on scrolls, it was Word in action. Jesus was anointed by the Spirit to bring glad tidings, to proclaim liberty, to recover sight, to free the oppressed, and tell the world about Him. His Word was relevant hundreds of years later.

And those same words are alive and relevant today. When we hear the Word of God proclaimed at our Mass or read the Word of God in our homes, these are not just words in a book. These are Words of action. When the Word is "broken open for us" during the Mass, we should see how these words matter today. God's Word is still pertinent to our times and in our lives. My challenge: open up the Word of God. Read the daily readings or listen to a Bible podcast (I highly recommend Fr. Mike Schmitz's "Bible in a Year"). Meditate on what you read or heard—and then live it. As Christians, that's what we are called to do.

God Bless,

Deacon Bob Summers

The Word of God Sunday

This weekend, January 22 and 23, we celebrate The Word of God Sunday, as announced by Pope Francis. Those who would like their bibles blessed should bring them to Mass this weekend. This is for everyone: children, bibles for gifting, or anyone who has a bible in their home. As we celebrate the gift of God's Word, please remember that our bibles and God's Word are meant to be a part of our daily life!

Additional Mass Intentions through March

You are welcome to schedule one additional weekend Mass and two additional weekday Mass intentions to be celebrated now through March. Masses are $10 each. Please call the Parish Office at (920) 336-4033 to schedule.

Mask Required Section in Church

With the continued increase in COVID cases locally, we are asking for increased compliance in our mask-required area of Church. Many feel uncomfortable attending Mass unless they are in a mask-required, socially distanced environment. Please respect those who prefer this seating by choosing an alternate area of the church if you prefer not to mask. Though our opinions may vary, please respect and show charity to our brothers and sisters in Christ!

Pro-Life Ministry Reminder

This year marks the 49th anniversary of the tragic Roe v. Wade Supreme Court decision legalizing abortion in our nation.

Many people believe this is a political cause, but for us as Catholics it is rather a spiritual cause. The 1st principle of our Catholic Social teaching is the Life and Dignity of the human person. The Catholic Church proclaims that human life is sacred and that the dignity of the human person is the foundation of a moral vision for society. Pope St. John Paul II explains, "It is therefore a service of love which we are all committed to ensure to our neighbor, that his or her life may always be defended and promoted, especially when it is weak or threatened."

We need to pray to make abortion unthinkable. We must acknowledge the sacredness of human life and think deeply about treasuring life from conception to natural death. As you pray be filled and overwhelmed with joy that God has brought you into existence.

"It is a poverty to decide that a child must die so that you may live as you wish." -St. Teresa of Calcutta

Christmas Memorial Addition

There is an addition to the Christmas Memorials printed last weekend: Bernadette Bobka for Edwin Bobka.
