The Bishop's Appeal 2022 - On Fire for the Lord

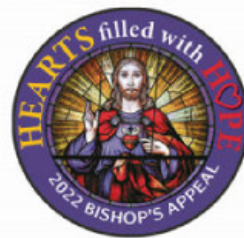

Many of us wonder where our faith journey may take us. For Julianne Stanz, her faith journey took her from a little mountain village in Ireland to northeast Wisconsin. Her role as Mission Team Leader and Director of the Parish Life & Evangelization Mission Team for the Diocese allows her to share our Catholic faith with adults of all ages, through programs like Girlfriends in God, Catholic Campus Ministries and Encounter for Young Adults.

"This work is tremendously important to me because it has impacted my own life on such a personal level," said Julianne. "I've seen the effects when people are energized in their faith. They are really on fire for Christ and His teachings."

Julianne's work has impacted more than 10,000 people, and without the support of the Bishop's Appeal, Julianne would be unable to bring Christ's message to them.

To make a gift to the Bishop's Appeal, visit the Bishop's Appeal website at www.catholicfoundationgb.org/give, or call Tammy toll-free at 877-500-3580 ext. 8123.

Hearts Filled with Hope inspire connection

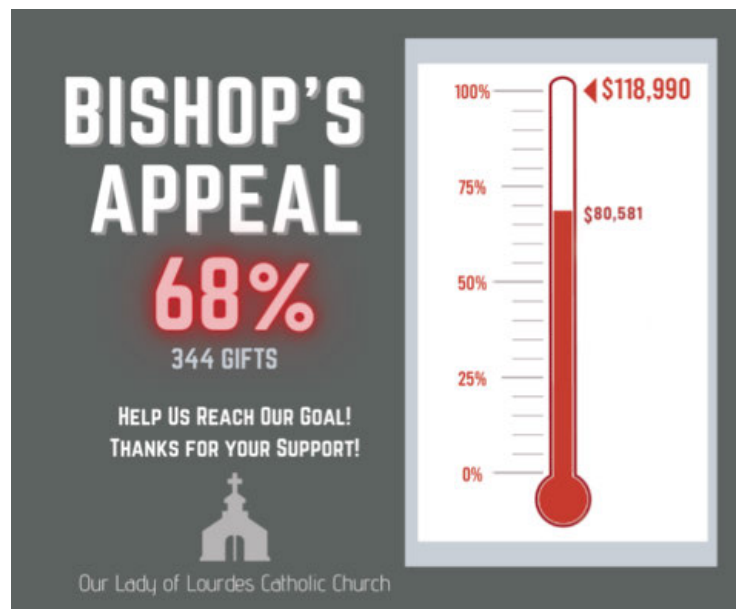

One of the gifts of the pandemic has been a reminder that the people are the Church. Our parishes continue to reach out and be with people through the joys and challenges of life.

Thanks to the support of the Bishop's Appeal, the Church has found innovative and effective ways to connect with families to share God's love.

Growing in Relationship with God

This weekend's Gospel is among the most well-known and beloved stories in the whole Bible: The Story of the Prodigal Son. This Gospel reminds us that God is more than just the Creator of the Universe or some Omnipotent Being: He is our Father, who loves us and is continuously seeking to forgive us and bring us closer to him.

What I find most interesting is that at the heart of this story we learn that our God is not a transactional God, but a relational God. What do I mean by this? God does not love us, forgive us, or welcome us into heaven in exchange for good behavior, a certain number of prayers, or because we did everything right in life. God loves us, forgives us, and welcomes us into Heaven when we have a RELATIONSHIP with him.

Looking at this Gospel story, the prodigal son not only had nothing to offer his father when he returned; he had taken and squandered all that the father provided for him. None of that matters. The fact is that he had a relationship with his father and, despite all his sins and mistakes, the father wants nothing more than for him to humble himself and return with his whole heart into that relationship.

Just the same, I don't believe our Father, God, is keeping a magic tally of what we did right and wrong, how many prayers we have said, or the penances we have kept. Those things only matter in the context of relationship. When we say the Rosary to grow closer to God, we build relationship with him. When we do good deeds and acts of charity because we see God in those we do it for, we build relationship with him. When we take an honest look at ourselves and own our mistakes, he forgives us because we desire to be in right relationship with him.

At the end of our lives, when we meet face to face with God, I believe our conversation with him will be a lot less like a math equation of our good and bad, but a review of our relationship with him. No matter how we may have at times squandered his gifts, or how little we have to offer him, the real question will be, "Did we strive to grow closer to him through prayer, acts of charity, and performing good deeds to those around us, just as we would for Christ himself?" This is the real question, as Matthew 25 illustrates. If we can honestly say we strove to be closer with Christ and build our relationship with him, following his example and teaching, no matter how clumsy or crooked our journey was, God our Father will welcome us home with celebration and rejoicing, just as the prodigal son was welcomed by his father.

God Bless,

Bridget Destree
Parish Secretary

Assistance for Afghan Refugee Families

The Christian Action Committee recently inquired as to how our parish might be able to assist the Afghan refugees who have recently arrived in our area. At this time, Catholic Charities is in need of volunteers who can drive the members of 10 families to appointments and such. In you are interested in helping, please contact Kellie Dekarske, Community Engagement Specialist, at (920) 272-8249, and she will share the steps that are necessary to become a Catholic Charities volunteer.

Also, there has been a generous outpouring of support for the refugees; however, Catholic Charities is still looking for washers and dryers for the families. If you are upgrading and would like to donate yours, please contact Kellie. In addition, there is a need for 10 ironing boards and irons. Donations of these items, can be brought to the Parish Office, and we will see that they are delivered to Catholic Charities. Thank you for your generous support!

Be attentive to the voice of grace.
