At rest in the Lord + + +

Dan Diny, 65, son of parishioner Germaine Diny, passed away on April 14, and was accorded Christian burial through Cotter Funeral Home on April 29. Dan graduated from Abbot Pennings High School and used his mechanical skills working with his father at Diny's Super Service in Greenleaf. He then joined John Brice Cabinets where he perfected his woodworking skills, crafting custom cabinets. Dan enjoyed being outdoors, helping neighbors and friends with projects, and spending time with his family. He is also survived by his wife of 35 years, Gwen, a son and daughter, a daughter-in-law, two grandsons, siblings, and extended family. He was preceded in death by his father, Leo.

Jim Maes, 91, a charter member of the parish and husband of parishioner Mary Maes, passed away on April 16, and was accorded Christian burial here on April 23. Jim served in the U. S. Army during the Korean War. After his return, he graduated from St. Norbert College with a degree in accounting. He was employed as a management accountant at Maes Business

Service and in the paper industry until his retirement. Jim was an avid photographer and an active volunteer in the De Pere community as a member of the Knights of Columbus, the VFW, and the St. Norbert College Golden Knights. He enjoyed camping, spending time at the cottage, making booyah, doing puzzles, bowling, and playing poker. In addition to Mary, his wife, of 65 years, Jim is further survived by six children and their spouses, grandchildren, and extended family.

+ + May Dan and Jim rest in Christ's peace! + +

Our Lady of Lourdes Parish, 1307 Lourdes Ave., De Pere, WI 54115

Do you love me?

Peter, do you love me? Peter, do you love me? Peter, do you love me? Jody, do you love me? Thomas, do you love me? Katie, do you love me? (Insert your name), do you love me? Can you answer that question quickly? Or does it make you squirm a bit to answer? I love you, Jesus, only when things are going great! I love you, Jesus, only when it is convenient for me! This is the conversation that Jesus and Peter have after Jesus' Resurrection, a conversation that makes me stop dead in my tracks. Jesus asks the question three times of Peter. I would be hurt just like Peter when Jesus asks the third time. Jesus negated the three times Peter denied Jesus before the cock crowed. God's mercy in action.

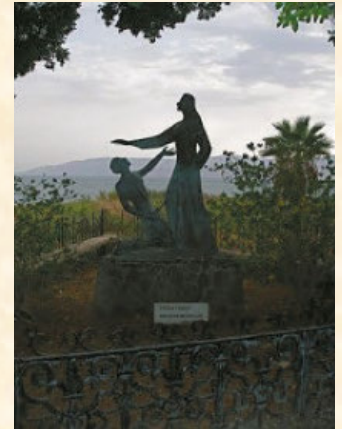

The Primacy of St. Peter: While in the Holy Land, one of the places I pilgrimaged to was the Church of the Primacy of St. Peter. This spot was familiar to Jesus and the apostles since this is the place where Jesus fed the 5,000, and later Jesus would make breakfast and ask Peter those three questions. Also, it is the place where Jesus gave Peter the keys to the kingdom. It is a humble location next to the Sea of Galilee, where Jesus would get into a boat to teach those sitting on the shore.

Tend my sheep: After Peter answers, Jesus tells him to feed/tend my sheep. Jesus says the same thing to you and me. We are to spread the Good News of the Resurrected Christ! We are to help each other get to heaven. This conversation reminds us to continue praying for our church leaders, the primary shepherds of Jesus' flock, shepherds crook and all.

In Christ,

Jody Strnad
Director of Music and Liturgy

Parish Trustee

Our Lady of Lourdes will be selecting a Secretary Trustee in the month of May. A parish trustee is an active, responsible parish member who is called to serve the parish as an advisor and counselor. The secretary trustee holds an important role in the parish community as a member of the Pastoral Council. A trustee is a member of the corporate board and serves as a trustworthy advisor to the pastor. A trustee is also concerned for the well being and ongoing development of a vibrant faith community.

Nominations for candidates are now being accepted. You must be at least 25 years old to be elected a trustee. Self nominations or nominations with nominee's approval will be accepted. If you are interested in serving or would like to nominate a parishioner (with his or her approval), please contact Carol Gibson at the Parish Office at (920) 336-4033 by Monday, May 9.

Congratulations!

Congratulations to Adam Sorensen and Abigail Kurth who were married this weekend at Our Lady of Lourdes. We wish them God's blessings at this special time and in the years to come!

Sacrament of Baptism

We welcome Audrey Larson to the Living Body of Christ! May God continue to bless her always.

"Welcome Home" to Our Lady of Lourdes: Father Seamus Neilson, O. Praem.

As announcements are being made across the Green Bay Diocese of priestly appointments made by Bishop David Ricken, I join Abbot Dane Radecki, O. Praem. in announcing a change in Norbertine assignment for our dear friend, and my confrere, Father Seamus Neilson, O. Praem. After twenty-nine years of incredibly dedicated service to Saint Norbert College, Father Seamus will leave SNC to join the staff at the Norbertine Center for Spirituality, where he will be engaged in directing retreats and will offer a variety of programs for parishes and area educational apostolates, serving as a trusted and creative resource to assist the Faithful with any number of topics pertinent to life in the Church from historical, temporary, artistic and sacramental perspectives. Father Seamus will also serve as a most-trusted aid in Sacramental Assistance to us here at Our Lady of Lourdes.

Let me explain what this does not mean: Father Seamus has not been appointed "associate pastor" of Our Lady of Lourdes! While serving in full-time ministry elsewhere, Father Seamus will be the available "front man" to assist us here at Lourdes when I need to get away for Board of Trustee engagements here in De Pere and in Chicago. He will fill in for me when I feel a need to get away for an annual retreat or days off; and, perhaps most importantly, he will serve here when I think you might need a little break from me! I am acutely aware that many of you have very positive memories of Father Seamus' ministry to us in the past—in fact, many of our young parishioners have been baptized by him! But for those unfamiliar with him, I can guarantee you, all will receive him incredibly well. I am overjoyed that the Order would send a man of his intellect, of his goodness, of his integrity, of his zealous priestly spirit, of his joyfulness, to complement the ministry already taking place here at Lourdes. I could not be happier to welcome Father Seamus to the apostolate which was so life-giving for us for so many years!

Father Seamus and I have always had a similar work ethic; neither of us are ones to go away on vacations or sit back idly by. While we admire those who do so to recharge batteries in such healthy ways, the two of us are simply wound a bit differently. We love the work entrusted to our care, we love priestly ministry, we are energized by the People of God, and we've also been a great resource to each other in ecclesial pursuits of common interest. In fact, when I served as Prior, no one was more supportive of my work than Father Seamus; and for that, I am most grateful and blessed!

Being engaged in priestly ministry at a parish of our size can be a very demanding and daunting task! Father Seamus' occasional presence here at Lourdes will hopefully allow me to take a day or two away without the worry of being "called back" to attend to so many unexpected issues that inevitably arise in parish life. Knowing that our parish will soon begin the diocesan "one by one" fundraising campaign that has been required of all parishes in the diocese, his presence will allow me to give an appropriate amount of time to any number of administrative issues that need to be addressed here at the parish. Such issues are often put on hold as I have made ministry to the sick, dying and bereaved an absolute priority. So often I am trying my best to simply "catch up" with the pastoral and sacramental needs here. As such, I am glad that Father Seamus will assist me in sacramental ministry; albeit, in a very limited way, given the other demands of his other formal full-time appointment elsewhere.

Please join me in welcoming Father Seamus Neilson, O. Praem. to Our Lady of Lourdes! His presence among us is just one more of the many blessings that makes Life at Lourdes such an incredible joy -- experienced by so many at our vibrant and quickly growing parish!

Yours in Our Lady and in Saint Norbert,

Father James Baraniak, O. Praem.
Pastor
