“Becoming disciples of Jesus and stewards of God’s gifts.”
This is one of the more gruesome depictions of Jesus on the cross I have seen. It draws out the irony of us celebrating this feast of ‘Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe.’

As we reach the end of our church year, as next week is the first week of Advent, this feast brings to perspective that we are called, as followers of Jesus, to imitate Jesus.

Therefore, how do we imitate Jesus as a king on the cross? The blood, the scourging pain, the slow agony toward death and the final desperation toward his Father in heaven, all invite us to run the other way as quickly as we are able. We don’t do well with pain and suffering and certainly don’t invite it into our lives. As we celebrate Christ as our King, the one we imitate in all ways, how do we reconcile this irony and tragic mystery.

Christ as King is clearly not the same image of the many kings and queens who have ruled earthly kingdoms throughout history. This king, Jesus the Christ, rules over a very different kingdom that is of this world and is not of this world. Hence, the ‘tragic mystery’. What we think is just and fair among us on earth is rarely the fullness of justice that God intends for us. We have our laws and practices, yet Jesus broke open those laws through what he did and said.

With shouts of ‘Crucify him!’ and ‘Are you the king of the Jews?’ the voices of mob justice came through loud and clear. Jesus fell victim to these voices and yet held on to the truth and eternal justice that is his very self. Jesus redefined kingship revealing what it looks like in the divine realm rather than in the world of politics and earthly power. The choice is ours. Christ the King offers us a model of grace, liberty and unfathomable love. Not our vision but Jesus’ vision for us.

I pray that we can move beyond the power structures and struggles that are typical of our world. As a Christian community here at Resurrection Parish, can we create a community that lives a true sense of Christ’s kingship that is expressed through the grace of God’s reconciling love and forgiving, life-giving power? The choice is ours.

Blessings,
Fr. Tom
GROW IN FAITH-PRAYER AND SHARING

Sunday-by-Sunday: Questions for Growing in Faith

- With whom in your family, work, neighborhood, do you need to reestablish relationships?
- How does substituting the word kin for king in the phrase the kin*dom of God change its meaning for you?
- Like the good thief, we ask, “Jesus, remember us when you come into your kindom.”

Praying With One Voice

The J.O.S.H.U.A. religious leaders encourage all congregations that work for justice to pray together with one voice during their weekly services/Masses. One common intercessory prayer is provided each week to be offered for a specific need in our greater Green Bay community. As people of faith, we pray in solidarity with one another.

Inspire and Empower project

The INSPIRE AND EMPOWER project began the first weekend in November. Look for supplies available at the three church entrances and at the Welcoming Center desk for you to jot down a favorite saying, thought or short prayer that uplifts your soul or empowers your feelings or mood. Parishioners can also email their contributions to Margaret Guzek at margaretguzek@gmail.com or Jennifer Friedel at jgfriedel@att.net. Contributions will be shared with parishioners in the bulletin, on the screens and on the parish website beginning in January 2020.

Brought to you by the Health and Wellness Committee

Resurrection Prayer Chain

If you have a prayer need, or would like to join the pray-ers, call DeDe Szurgot at 920-336-9526 or Bonnie Lemerond at 920-471-6545. Confidentiality is assured.

Allergies

Please do not wear strong perfumes, colognes, hairspray, after shaves, etc. to church. Some of your parish family members in the pew have allergies or sensitivities to scents. Thank you!

Annual Advent Prayer Partner Bread Exchange

Join us on the first weekend of Advent, at any Mass, November 30/December 1, in a prayer partner-bread exchange. Please bring a fresh loaf of bread, bread or rolls of any kind, to the liturgy of your choice. The bread will be blessed and exchanged with a promise of shared prayer between our households of faith with the hope that members of our parish might be more deeply connected this Advent season ... through acts of prayer, charity, and justice. Check out the brochures on display at the entrances of church, on the website, and other social media outlets.

Tree of Giving

Over the years, the generosity of Resurrection Parishioners has been much appreciated by the various agencies and families it has helped at Christmas time. You have provided 600-700 gifts, plus gifts for 20 adopted families/individuals each year. Your stewardship of sharing, and the Spirit of Christmas is truly present in our parish.

You are invited to take as many of the agency squares as you like.

- Bring the gift card back with the square attached by December 8 and indicate the $ amount on it. Gift Cards should be no more than $25 each unless otherwise stated.
- Place it in the appropriate labeled box near the Greeting Area ramp for the agency that the gift card is intended.
- Weekdays—please bring your gift cards to the Welcoming Center reception area.

You may choose to purchase $CRIP Gift Cards, to help the parish additionally, on your own.

Thank you for your participation in this wonderful Advent/Christmas project. If you have any questions, please contact one of the SoJO Committee/Tree of Giving members:

- Joyce Runge 920-680-3014
- Gloria Scheriff 920-465-1484

Women’s Guild Holiday Bake Sale

Attention, women of the Parish! It's not too early to start planning for the Women's Guild Holiday Bake Sale. This year our annual fundraiser will fall on Dec. 7-8 after all the Masses. Annual Outreach Collection
Disciples Making a Difference

In this special Season of Thanks & Praise, your prayerful giving & sharing makes a difference both near & far! Your use of the orange envelope, sent to your household of faith in the September quarterly mailing OR as found in the plastic pew pockets, is greatly appreciated. God bless you for your stewardship of service and sharing as we work together as missionary disciples, united in our faith and in our efforts in bringing God’s love and justice to our world!

LOOKING AHEAD TO THANKSGIVING DAY FOOD/PERSONAL HYGIENE DRIVE

During Thanksgiving Week, your household of faith is invited to support the annual Food/Personal Hygiene Drive in support of Paul’s Pantry. For those of you looking for ways to help the next generation make faith connections in a season bombarded by Madison Avenue Shop-Til You Drop Christmas Present messages, consider including children/teens in the selection of the personal hygiene care products to be donated to Paul’s Pantry. Ask the children/teens in your life: “What kind of personal hygiene care products would a child/teen like to receive?” Take the children/teens shopping and have them make the selections accordingly.
