Why Do We Do That? - Catholic Life Explained

Lectio Divina

Question:

What is Lectio Divina, and how is it associated with the Benedictine Monastic tradition, whose founder, St. Benedict, we honor on July 11?

Answer:

Benedict desired his monks to live in community, praying the Liturgy of the Hours together, contemplating sacred texts, and doing manual labor. The monks developed a technique to facilitate a spiritual and devotional reading of the Bible known as Lectio Divina, the holy reading of a text. This method encourages the reader to hear the biblical text with an open heart and focus on whatever God wants to highlight and then apply it to daily life.

There are variations on Lectio Divina, but essentially, the technique consists of a three-step process of reflection. When the reflection is done with a group, the responses are shared by all the participants. Once the text is selected, it is read meditatively, and the following are then explored: a word or phrase that attracts you; how and where the content of this reading touches your life today; what you believe that God wants you to do during this coming week (month, year, lifetime).

Thanks to Benedict, the Christian community has been gifted with this special way of entering into the biblical text. This week, use the Lectio Divina process on one of the readings for the coming Sunday and make a note of the life connections you are making. How is this reflection on the biblical text drawing you closer to God and others?

Altar Flower Donations

The Flower Intention:
In loving memory of
Wally Heimerl

Our deepest sympathy is extended to the family and friends of:

Charlie Waldvogel, parishioner

Please keep all the souls of our dearly departed in your prayers.

Prayer for Carmelites

Each week, we ask that you pray for the Discalced Carmelite Friars.

This week we ask prayers for God to continue to bless and strengthen:

Fr. Pier Giorgio

Sacred Silence

The Holy Father, Pope Francis, has summoned us to prepare our hearts for the liturgy of the Mass and secondly, to embrace each other as integral parts of our faith community. While we at St. Mary of the Hill hold both of these things dear, it is difficult because of the configuration of our building to both welcome friends and prepare our hearts at the same time ...but let's try.

Beginning June 17 & 18, 2022 St. Mary of the Hill Parish will only have the light on Our Lord in the sanctuary all other lights won't turn on until Mass is about to begin. This way, everyone can properly prepare for the Sacred Mass. We ask that you welcome your parish family after Mass.

St. Mary of the Hill Security Information

Just a reminder, we have implemented a few new security measures at the Parish during Masses to keep parishioners safe. The ushers will do a perimeter check prior to Mass and the front doors will be locked 10 minutes after the Mass has begun. The security team asks our parish family to do their part by attending Mass on time.

In light of the pending decision from the U.S. Supreme Court on abortion, law enforcement agencies across the U.S. are issuing alerts for violence and civil unrest. The parish should remain vigilant and be prepared should protestors decide to show up in front of your church. Please follow these guidelines:

1. Try not to engage with the protestors.
2. Work with local law enforcement and follow their recommendations. They can also help manage the event. Police are the only ones with legal authority to deal with these protestors. They can assist by keeping protestors off church property and making sure the protest remains peaceful.
3. If media shows up, make no comment, Fr. Jude will talk with the media if an issue arises.

Knit/Crochet Update

Knitting has been cancelled for the month of July, we plan on resuming in the fall. For those who have been working at home making handmade goodies for the Antique & Flea Market, please have items to the parish by July 24th. Call Carla for more information 262-628-3606 ext 6.

How To Live Out Today's Gospel This Week

1. Volunteer at a homeless shelter or in the All Saints Meal Program. Ask Nancy or Bill Preston for further information or call the parish office.
2. Find out who St. Kateri Tekakwitha was and learn about her compassion.
3. Do you see someone in church today who is new? Go and introduce yourself and make them feel welcome.
4. July 12 is the DEADLINE for Boutique donations.

Wedding Banns II

Gabrielle DeMeuse and Bradley Lorrigan

Please keep our engaged couple in your prayers as they prepare for the sacrament of matrimony.

Appropriate Attire

Summer is here and bringing with it warm weather! Liturgical Ministers and all parishioners reminder: Dressing well is befitting of the Sacred Mass. Dressing well demonstrates reverence. Clothing conveys values. You are communicating through your appearance. Appropriate dress should convey the sacredness of the whole action of the Mass. Your attire indicates the importance of what is taking place. Please consider what you are wearing to Mass and dress modestly.

Live the Liturgy - Inspiration for the Week

It's important to keep our eyes open. Otherwise, we can easily dismiss things that truly require our attention. Whether it is someone needing care, a wrong that must be rectified, an injustice that must be addressed, or someone in need of a helping hand, the lens through which we view life (and even the rules by which we live) can prevent us from stopping and acting. Whether it's an obsession with being on time, a compulsion to complete tasks according to a schedule, or a rigidity with not breaking a law or fear of taking a risk, we miss daily opportunities to show mercy. We often fail in our duty to be a good neighbor, especially when it involves brothers and sisters remote from us whom we have never met. The pain of the world is our pain. God's law of love, mercy, and compassion is not something remote. It's already within us and very near. All we have to do is open our eyes and carry it out.
