Gospel Differences

Question:

Why do the Gospels differ in their details? I was surprised to learn that not all of the Gospels tell the same stories, for example, the Nativity. Doesn't this take away from their credibility?

Answer:

Take any event that happens, from family trips to national politics and ask two or three different people to explain what happened. You will get a different version of the same story. People tend to tell the story from their perspective, and past experience shades what we recall and how we recall it. Our choice of words and what details we leave in or out is also influenced by the audience who is listening to our tales.

The Gospel writers are no different. Each one tells the story of Jesus from their own perspective. Versions differ in some details, not because one is true and the other is not, but because each Gospel writer, or Evangelist, has a different theological point to communicate as well as a different audience for whom he is writing. He picks and chooses the details of his Gospel based on what message he is preaching, what his audience may already know, and what message they need to hear. The various details of the Gospels point more to their authenticity as a record of the church's experience and understanding of Jesus. In a good study Bible, the background notes for each Gospel contain a lot of information that helps us better understand each Evangelist and his message. ©LPi

18TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"Thus will it be for all who store up treasure for themselves but are not rich in what matters to God." - Lk 12:21

Carmelite Quotation of the Week

Story of a Soul. . .

It is not to remain in a golden ciborium that He comes to us each day from heaven: it's to find another heaven infinitely more dear to Him than the first: the heaven of our soul, made to His images, the living temple of the adorable Trinity.

All Saints Hygiene Drive

We are collecting hygiene items for All Saints Church on August 13 & 14 weekend. Items needed: toothpaste, toothbrushes, soap, body wash, shampoo, conditioner for men, women and children, laundry soap, spot cleaner, hand soap and disinfectant. Our primary request is for personal care hygiene items. Consider the diverse population served, large and small containers of appropriate supplies would be appreciated. Contact Bill or Nancy with any questions at 262-673-7723 or wnpeston@gmail.com.

Why Baptism? from Liguori Publications

A mom goes through great pains to give birth to a baby who is alive and kicking. Nothing can put the baby back into the womb. But Jesus went on to tell us that your baby isn't just your child. Your baby is also God's Child. And God, too, went to enormous pains—even to dying on the cross for us—to show us how much every child of God's is loved. The Sacrament of Baptism is the sign that every sin is forgiven and that we are precious and valued. And that really is a rebirth. It gives us new life. It makes it possible for us to start again.

When the minister pours the baptismal water over your child's forehead it is like being born again. This time, however, it isn't with the life you have given it; but it is with the life—the Spirit—of Jesus, who now looks forward to receiving your child into eternal life.

New Baptism Program September 27, 5-6:30pm. Please register asap by calling or emailing Wendy at 262-628-3606 ext. 2 or pastorala@stmaryhh.org

How To Live Out Today's Gospel This Week

1. Reflect on your priorities. Are they making you more or less fit for the Kingdom of God?
2. Take some time to sit with Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament this Wednesday.
3. Re-read St. Paul's epistle to the Galatians tonight. Discuss what it means to you with another.

Live the Liturgy - Inspiration for the Week

Greed is more present and powerful in our lives than we care to admit. We like our "stuff" and are hesitant to part with it. What we convince ourselves that we really need, we really do not. If everything we own is taken away from us tomorrow, life will continue. We will find happiness again. How many relationships are ruined because of inheritance issues? Our possessions cannot come with us when we die. Why do we foolishly think that we cannot live without them here? Wealth and happiness do not have physical origins. True wealth and happiness are gifts of God's kingdom and matters of heart and soul. We are much more than what we possess, and greed is more real and operative than we think. Let us begin our journey to detachment with an honest admission. We often place more importance on things than on people and God. Ask God to accept our conflicted hearts and give us the courage to do things differently. ©LPi

NATIONAL Eucharistic REVIVAL

MANY CATHOLICS DO NOT BELIEVE IN JESUS' REAL PRESENCE IN THE EUCHARIST. PART 2 OF THE REAL PRESENCE OF OUR LORD:

CATECHISM OF THE CATHOLIC CHURCH

1375 It is by the conversion of the bread and wine into Christ's body and blood that Christ becomes present in this sacrament. The Church Fathers strongly affirmed the faith of the Church in the efficacy of the Word of Christ and of the action of the Holy Spirit to bring about this conversion.

Thus St. John Chrysostom declares:

It is not man that causes the things offered to become the Body and Blood of Christ, but he who was crucified for us, Christ himself. The priest, in the role of Christ, pronounces these words, but their power and grace are God's. This is my body, he says. This word transforms the things offered. 204
