Dear Parishioners,

Today we celebrate the Feast of the Holy Family of Jesus, Mary, and Joseph. This celebration invites consideration of the family as the privileged place for evangelization.

The Church teaches that parents have “the responsibility and privilege of evangelizing their children.” (CCC 2225). Because this work of evangelization often goes unnoticed, we can easily overlook its importance.

The word evangelization may conjure up images heroism and zeal: St. Paul trekking Roman roads, St. Boniface chopping down the sacred oak, St. Jean de Brébeuf paddling a canoe, and St. Francis de Sales debating with Calvinists, modern day apologists lecturing to atheists, or bishops teaching via internet videos.

But some forms of evangelization do not have such fanfare. For example, St. Thérèse of Lisieux desired to evangelize as a missionary. But she never ventured to primitive frontiers proclaiming the Gospel of Jesus Christ. Her vocation was to remain cloistered within the convent walls. There she prayed and sacrificed for missionaries. Undoubtedly, through her fidelity, God brought many to know and love Jesus Christ.

Like St. Thérèse and her hidden life, parents are also called to evangelize in ways that often go unnoticed. They may not record videos, give lectures, or write articles, but they do pray with children at bedtime, take them to Sunday Mass and regular confession, and model for them the Christian life.

While we typically do not use the word “evangelization” to describe “passing on” the faith to the next generation, employing this term justifiably ennobles the parental task. And it prevents us from allowing the glamour of the outspoken obscure the simplicity of the quiet.

The truth is that handing on the faith depends mostly upon parents. Pulpit preachers, prominent speakers, and knowledgeable teachers all provide great resources. So too, Catholic schools, religious education programs, and youth groups offer valuable support. But ultimately it is up to parents to get the job done.

I recently looked at some statistics from the Archdiocese of Milwaukee showing that over 97 percent of those baptized in the Catholic Church are infants or children. By and large, the future of the Church depends on their reception of the faith from their parents.

Of course, evangelization is ultimately the work of God, not you or me. God converts hearts. But he does so by generously working through our example, prayers, words, and deeds. Like the hidden life of St. Thérèse, the evangelizing efforts of parents often go overlooked. Helping their two-year old make the sign of the Cross and pointing out to her Jesus in the Eucharist, showing their teenager the meaning of Christian joy and taking him to Mass on Holy Days—such parental tasks often are hidden. But the continuation of Christianity depends upon them.

Finally, we must remember that despite their best efforts, many parents are sobered by the difficulty of their role. The “the responsibility and privilege of evangelizing their children” assigns to parents a rather heavy load. So, pray for them every day and lend a hand anyway you can. You would be hard-pressed to find more important work.

Happy Feast of the Holy Family!

In Christ,

Father Strand

The angel said to them, "Do not be afraid; for behold, I proclaim to you good news of great joy that will be for all the people." Luke 2:10

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,
Imagine being a lowly shepherd, watching over your sheep on a typical night, and then suddenly, your life changes forever. A bright light and a multitude of angels appear, proclaiming that "great joy" is to be had. While the message was one of celebration and awe, I can't help but think that if it were me, I too would be a little more frightened than overjoyed in the moment.

How many times have we been struck with fear in our lives? During the past year, many of us faced the fear of a world-wide pandemic, a serious health diagnosis and possibly a job loss. During difficult times, it can be hard to "fear not," as the angels assured the shepherds.

No matter where you find yourself this Christmas – perhaps back to Mass for the first time in a long time, or in the same pew you've been sitting in for years – please know that Jesus loves you and wants to be in a relationship with you.

This coming year, I encourage you to reconnect, rediscover, and renew your relationship with Jesus and his Church. Here in the Archdiocese of Milwaukee, you'll discover a multitude of opportunities to encounter the love of Jesus and deepen your spiritual life. Together, let us not fear but rejoice in the "good news of great joy!"

Sincerely yours in Christ,
Most Reverend

HOLY TRINITY CATHOLIC SCHOOL

Peace and Goodwill in Christ!

Many of you may have felt overwhelmed with the hustle and bustle of Christmas. Now that the rush is over, take some time for yourself and your family to simply focus on the essence of Christmas this year.

December 25th is valuable to us because Jesus is alive. It is a day for each of us to be reminded of the trust and love given to us. We use it in God's service and glory. December 25th is a good gift from a good God given for our delight and his glory.

Christ means "anointed", like the oil that flowed down Aaron's beard, or oil that is rubbed deeply and repeatedly. The oil is the Spirit of God. Let the Spirit of God anoint you today and every day.

What was Jesus like? Meditate on the Sermon on the Mount, or St. Paul's "love chapter", 1 Cor. 13, or the fruits of the Spirit: love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, mildness, generosity, goodness, self-control, and faith.

Pray from your heart. Let the prayers reach into your heart and soul. The angels and the saints are celebrating with you.

Let us remember this as we begin a new year!
Happy New Year!

Blessings,
Mrs. Longden

Into Your Hands, O Lord, We Commend Her Spirit

The Parish Office will have limited hours the week of December 27th and will be closed on Friday, December 31st, 2021
Please email hparish@htrschool.net for any urgent needs.

Prayer for Priests by St. Therese of Lisieux

O Jesus, eternal Priest, keep your priests within the shelter of Your Sacred Heart, where none may touch them. Keep unstained their anointed hands, which daily touch Your Sacred Body. Keep unsullied their lips, daily purpled with your Precious Blood. Keep pure and unearthly their hearts, sealed with the sublime mark of the priesthood. Let Your holy love surround them and shield them from the world's contagion. Bless their labors with abundant fruit and may the souls to whom they minister be their joy and consolation here and in heaven their beautiful and everlasting crown. Amen.

Prayer for Priests from the Apostleship of Prayer

Jesus, Eternal High Priest, let your love flow into the hearts of your priests and transform them into living images of you. By your grace, make them true apostles of your Sacred Heart. I pray for the fulfillment of the promise you made to St. Margaret Mary: "I will give to priests the gift of touching the most hardened hearts." May your Kingdom come to the hearts of all through the ministry of holy priests!
