THE BAPTISM OF THE LORD

After all the people had been baptized and Jesus also had been baptized and was praying, heaven was opened and the Holy Spirit descended upon him in bodily form like a dove. - Lk 3:21-22a

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD.

JANUARY 9, 2022—THE BAPTISM OF THE LORD

Dear Parishioners,

Today we celebrate the Baptism of our Lord, Jesus Christ.

This solemnity gives each of us an opportunity to reflect upon our own baptism, and our identity, dignity, and mission as Christians.

When we were baptized, we were born into Christ's very life. Through it, we have become members of his body. The sacramental grace we've received allows us to share in the overabundant and divine love of the Most Holy Trinity.

As members of Christ's body, we have been claimed by God. We have been set apart, and made God's own. God has claimed us in baptism by bestowing upon us an indelible mark. This means our baptism is everlasting, and can never be repeated. Although the mark is invisible, it cannot be removed.

The indelible mark is the sign that we have been made members of Christ's body, and have been adopted as sons and daughters of God, just as Christ is the Son of God.

This share in Christ's life as His members gives us tremendous dignity, the dignity of sons and daughters of God. Our primary identity is now our relationship with God, as son or daughter. What an incredible identity, what an incredible gift!

As sharers in Christ's life, we have now also become sharers in Christ's person and His priesthood. Not only have we been given tremendous dignity, and a clear identity, but we have also been deputized to share in Christ's priesthood.

As sharers in Christ's priesthood, our primary mission is to offer right worship to God. We do this when we faithfully attend mass with our families, and when we fervently assist the priest by offering our whole hearts to be taken up into the sacrifice of the Eucharist. We do this by praying with our families at home, and sacrificing for our children and spouses. We do this by living virtuously, and living with grateful hearts, knowing that all we have received comes from Him, and so we offer all we have back to the Father out of love, just as Christ did.

The sacramental grace we receive at baptism is one we always have access to. They are always there, however, they are only activated when we are living faithfully. This means that in order to actualize the real identity, dignity, and mission with which we have been blessed, we must make regular use of the sacraments of confession the Eucharist. When we live a regular life of communion with God and others, these baptismal graces can flow freely, and we can fully participate in God's love, and allow it to spill over into our relationships at home, at work, and in our community.

We have been offered an incredible gift. This Sunday, let us thank God for such a gift. Let us strive to remember our dignity, live from our identity, and exercise our priestly role. Let us offer our lives back to the one who so generously bestowed them upon us.

Kevin Durand
Seminarian, Archdiocese of Milwaukee

Memorare—Remember, O most gracious Virgin Mary, that any one who fled to thy protection, implored thy help or sought thy intercession, was left unaided. Inspired by this confidence, We fly unto thee, O Virgin of virgins my Mother; to thee do we come, before thee we stand, sinful and sorrowful; O Mother of the Word Incarnate, despise not our petitions, but in thy mercy hear and answer them. Amen.*

Morning Offering O Jesus, through the Immaculate Heart of Mary, I offer you my prayers, works, joys, and sufferings of this day for all the intentions of your Sacred Heart, in union with the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass throughout the world, for the salvation of souls, the reparation of sins, the reunion of all Christians, and in particular for the intentions of the Holy Father this month. Amen.*

Baptism invites us to a vocation of holiness and the practice of charity. In Baptism, we receive a “vocation to holiness,” which is “intimately connected” to our membership in the “Communion of Saints,” which strives to make present the “Kingdom of God in history.” Participation in the Communion of Saints requires a commitment to communion with Christ and “a life of charity” in “this world and in the next” (Christifideles Laici, nos. 17, 19). Month of
The Most Holy Name of Jesus

A heartfelt thank you goes out to everyone who helped make the joint Holy Trinity/St Michael's Advent Giving Tree project a success again this year despite the difficulties presented by the continued pandemic. Hundreds of gifts were given by our generous parishioners. The many facets of involvement by different groups and individuals truly makes this a great parish project. Every year we receive

"Thank You's" from many of the organizations expressing their appreciation for supporting them.

HOLY TRINITY CATHOLIC SCHOOL

Catholic Schools Week 2021-2022
January 30th-February 5th

Theme: "Catholic Schools: Faith. Excellence. Service."

Catholic schools have a specific purpose to form students to be good citizens of the world, love God and neighbor, and enrich society with the leaven of the Gospel and by example of faith.

As communities of faith, Catholic schools instill in students their destiny to become saints. Academic excellence is the hallmark of Catholic education intentionally directed to the growth of the whole person-mind, body, and spirit. Finally, service is fundamental to Catholic education and the core of Catholic discipleship. Service is intended to help form people who are not only witnesses to Catholic social teaching, but also active participants through social learning.

The CSW logo emphasizes that the Catholic school, like the Catholic Church, is not a building or an institution, but it is the people. As the people of God, we work together to bring the Kingdom of God to Earth and raise up the next generation to do the same. The image of teachers and students forming the foundation of the school shows that they are active people of faith who serve others and God. May we all strive to live in active service of Jesus and his mission as we nationally join together during Catholic Schools Week and always.

Our Chili Dinner is January 30th. Watch for more information coming soon!

Blessings,
Mrs. Longden

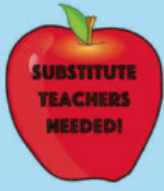

*"For I know the plans I have for you.
Plans to prosper you and not to harm you.
Plans to give you hope and a future."

PRAYER TO SAINT MICHAEL THE ARCHANGEL

 SAINT MICHAEL THE ARCHANGEL, DEFEND US IN BATTLE; BE OUR PROTECTION AGAINST THE WICKEDNESS AND SNARES OF THE DEVIL.
 MAY GOD REBUKE HIM, WE HUMBLY PRAY; AND DO THOU, O PRINCE OF THE HEAVENLY HOST, BY THE POWER OF GOD, CAST INTO HELL SATAN AND ALL THE OTHER EVIL SPIRITS WHO PROWL ABOUT THE WORLD SEEKING THE RUIN OF SOULS.
 AMEN.
