JANUARY 23, 2022—3RD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Friends,

Today's second reading is a famous reading from St. Paul's First Letter to the Corinthians. We've heard it many times, and we understand the general gist. We are together the Body of Christ, and each of us are parts of His Body, incorporated via our Baptism into the Church. St. Paul's famous analogy of the Church as the Body of Christ can help us come to know certain truths much needed for the Church today.

The first is that we become members of Christ's body. This is key because it is in our unity with Christ alone that we find our true happiness and fulfillment in life. The gift and call of being a Christian is coming to understand our lives in light of the life, death, and resurrection of Jesus Christ. The gate through which we pass to be able to come to this understanding is the Sacrament of Baptism, whereby we are incorporated into Christ's body.

The second truth is that each of us belongs as a part of the whole. This means that each of us has received a unique gift and call from God to build up the Church. In the tradition, we call these particular ways of building up the Church charisms. The eye is not the ear, nor is the hand the foot. Each person has a particular way(s) that God has invited him or her to build up the Church. St. Paul also gives examples of charisms: to be apostles, prophets, teachers, performers of mighty deeds, healers, those who provide assistance, administrators, gifts of tongues, and interpreters. Other charisms are given to the Church through the gifts of the Holy Spirit that are poured out on us in a profound way during the Sacrament of Confirmation. These gifts are wisdom, understanding, fortitude, knowledge, piety, and fear of the Lord. All gifts given to us by God are meant to be in some way shared with others.

The third truth is not only do others need our gifts, we need others' gifts. We are not self-sufficient beings unto ourselves, who need no assistance, love, or help from others. This is a hard one, especially for young people today. We need other people. Relying on other people is necessary to function as a healthy and happy human person. None of us has all of the gifts, and none of us has none of the gifts. Everyone gives, and everyone receives. We must fight against the temptation to be self-reliant in our lives. While I was away on retreat last week, I came across the helpful line from St. Teresa of Avila: "My self-reliance almost killed me." It is a temptation for all of us to be alone and to want to prove to ourselves and others that we are good enough. But that is not how we were made and not why we were made.

There is a key difference between the two words imitation and participation regarding our lives with Christ. Imitation implies that we like certain qualities of someone, and we seek to model our lives after those qualities. This way of operating is not the call of Christ. Jesus wants more for us, and that more is to participate in his very life. It is a deeper, fuller, and more meaningful way of coming to know, love, and share Jesus with others. If we are truly his Body sacramentally, we are to really be that body in the world. This week let us resolve to participate more deeply in the Body of Christ by coming to understand more deeply our unique gift and call from God.

Seminarist, Archdiocese of Milwaukee

St. Thomas Aquinas | Feast Day January 28th

One of the most famous members of the Dominican Order, St. Thomas Aquinas (1225 – 1274) is well-known by many for his theological work, "The Summa Theologiae." Born in Italy. His greatest contribution to the Catholic Church is his writings. The unity, harmony, and continuity of faith and reason, of revealed and natural human knowledge, encompasses his writings. The Summa Theologiae, his last and, unfortunately, uncompleted work, deals with the whole of Catholic theology. The patron saint of teachers, theologians and students, St. Thomas Aquinas died in 1274. His life and the impact he had on the whole Church, however, remains alive today. ©LPi

HOLY TRINITY CATHOLIC SCHOOL

As we begin to look at the events of Catholic Schools Week, I think it is important to thank everyone who makes our school possible. We are grateful to the parishioners of Holy Trinity and St. Michael's for the support they provide and to Father Strand and Zachary Galante for their spiritual guidance. We thank our parents for their commitment to a faith-filled education for their children. We thank our faculty and staff for their dedication and care. We thank our students for the joy and enthusiasm they bring to school each day. And finally, we thank God for the many blessings he has bestowed upon us.

This time of year gets very busy around school. We are serious about the registration of students for next fall and we are hosting our Open House during Catholic Schools Week. It always seems so early to begin thinking and working on registration in January, but we need to lock in the future of next fall. Having families make a commitment to enroll at this time helps our school plan for budgeting, staffing, space, and supplies that we will need to move forward. Tuition and registration documents will be sent out in early February.

Please, if you know a family who might be a good fit for our school or one that is just starting out with preschool/ kindergarten enrollment, please share information about our school with them. Invite them to our Open House. The upcoming events help new families learn more, but tours of our school are welcome at any time as well. Contact the school office if you are interested in a school tour.

Hope to see you all at the Chili Dinner and Open House on Sunday, January 30th!

Blessings,
Mrs. Longden

The Washington County Senior Dining Home Delivered Meal Program

needs volunteer drivers in West Bend on Mondays and Wednesdays (approximately 1 1/2 hours to take noon meals to the homebound.) Volunteers are also needed to provide kitchen assistance for serving meals in the Kewaskum area 9:15 a.m.—10:45 a.m. on Wednesdays. If you can help on any of these days in either location, please contact the aging and Disability Resource Center of Washington County at 262-335-4497 or 1-877-306-3030 for more information.

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED!

We are looking for another volunteer to help with leading our Parent Baptism class. Training and materials will be provided. The time commitment would be about 4 times per year on the third Sunday.

The Baptism Leader would meet with parents who wish to have their baby baptized at either Holy Trinity or St. Michael and lead them through some videos and discussions. If you are interested, please contact Mrs. Mary Breuer at 262-626-2650.

Help Needed: Mission Trip Service Calls

This summer, our parishes will once again be hosting a local mission trip through the Milwaukee Archdiocese called Love Begins Here. Close to 70 middle school teens from all over the Archdiocese will be here for a week in June to serve as many people as possible. By the end of the week, they plan to give over 850 hours of service to our community! What a blessing! However, we need to help find ways for these teens to serve while they are here!

We are looking for several people to help make phone calls to plan this service work. You will have training, call scripts, and support on how to do this - it's also very flexible on when you make calls.

Are you willing to give a few hours this winter and spring to help make this service possible for our community? Please contact Mary Breuer today! 262-626-2650 or faithformation@htschool.net

Lewis gives us the correspondence of a worldly-wise senior devil to his nephew, a novice demon in charge of securing the damnation of an ordinary young man. Screwtape Letters is an insightful and engaging account of temptation - and triumph over it!" All women aged 40 years and up are most welcome to join this book group. We meet every other Monday at 6:30 PM in the Holy Trinity gathering space. This 8-session course will begin February 7. Questions? Call Mary Feind 262-689-8934 or Mary Ann Pollpeter 262-573-7811.

PRAYER TO SAINT MICHAEL THE ARCHANGEL

 SAINT MICHAEL THE ARCHANGEL, DEFEND US IN BATTLE; BE OUR PROTECTION AGAINST THE WICKEDNESS AND SNARES OF THE DEVIL.
 MAY GOD REBUKE HIM, WE HUMBLY PRAY; AND DO THOU, O PRINCE OF THE HEAVENLY HOST, BY THE POWER OF GOD, CAST INTO HELL SATAN AND ALL THE OTHER EVIL SPIRITS WHO PROWL ABOUT THE WORLD SEEKING THE RUIN OF SOULS.
 AMEN.
