JANUARY 30, 2022—4TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Dear Parishioners,

Over Christmas, my brother-in-law shared with me a recent change of heart. He recalled a conversation he and I had a few years ago, where he said he believed there was no such thing as a selfless act. He thought that even when one acted rightly, these acts were always mixed with selfish interests. Now, he has changed his mind, and believes there are selfless acts, which could rightly be called "charitable".

Our second reading today focuses on charity. Charity is a theological virtue, which differentiates it from other human virtues. Where some virtues can be developed over time through intentional repeated action, the gift of charity is exactly that - it is a gift. And this gift can only come from God. Charity can be defined as love, as willing the good of the other.

As Zachary referenced in last week's bulletin, our seminary community went away on retreat two weeks ago. A takeaway from the retreat for me was the direct relationship of prayer to charity. In prayer, we are present to the one who is always present to us. And, as Christians, we believe in Jesus' power to transform us. As we give ourselves to Christ in our being present to Him, we allow Him to bestow the great gift of charity upon us. In this way, charity can be a helpful litmus test for us. If we see this virtue taking root in us, we can thank God. If not, we might ask ourselves if we have been attentive to Jesus, and to return to Him, believing that He can make us new, and can transform our hearts.

Perhaps we can ask ourselves if the love we hear in the second reading today corresponds to our experiences? Do we love like that? If not, we should not be surprised or ashamed. Without Christ, no one could possess this virtue. Rather than be shocked, we can resolve to do what is in our control to develop this love within us. And what is in our control? As Catholics, we have incredible recourse to the sacraments. We can confess our sins, and devoutly approach the Eucharist. Also, we can make the little decisions to be present to God in prayer, even if that can only happen on the drive into work, or early in the morning.

It is no coincidence that my brother-in-law's change of heart directly coincides with his greater attentiveness to God's presence in his life through prayer. Let us remember that what makes us unique as Christians is our relationship and trust in God. We can remember that He is for us, and that He wants to work in our lives. He is always present to us, and when we make ourselves present to Him, He can do amazing things. Among our primary duties as Christians is to be true believers. We believe that He can do all things, not just abstractly, but in our very own hearts and lives.

Seminararian, Archdiocese of Milwaukee

Love is patient, love is kind.

It does not envy, it does not boast,
it is not proud. It does not dishonor others,
it is not self-seeking, it is not easily angered,
it keeps no record of wrongs.
Love does not delight in evil
but rejoices with the truth.

It always protects, always trusts,
always hopes, always perseveres.

Love never fails.

Happy Catholic Schools Week!

Catholic Schools:
Faith. Excellence. Service.

Sunday, January 30th

Join us for our Chili Dinner 11:30-1:30 in the school café and gym.

Open House from 12:00-1:00 in the school.

Students at Holy Trinity grow closer to God and deepen their faith during their years at HTS. Catholic Schools Week is a time to celebrate our Catholic Faith and growing closer to God. Students develop a strong bond with their fellow students, their school, their church, and their home to create a strong sense of community. In the classroom and through extracurricular activities like HTS athletics, and service opportunities, students can develop close, healthy friendships with other students. They come to understand that everyone is unique and valuable regardless of their culture and socio-economic backgrounds.

Thank you for your support of Holy Trinity Catholic School!

Blessings,
Mrs. Longden
