Friends,

Making New Year's resolutions is nearly as old as human beings having a renewing calendar to mark the progress of time. Like the seasons of the Church's liturgical year, the repetition and renewal are good things if taken seriously. Allow me to offer some recommendations for a set of Catholic New Year's Resolutions.

"Returning" Christmas Gifts – Do you ever have those moments when you feel anxious or guilty after having received a gift from someone, when your gift to them was smaller or less thoughtful? Everything that you received through the holidays is but a sliver of what God has given you. No gift in this life comes with the thoughtfulness of a Creator who knows every hair on our head and every thought in our heart. This year, make a renewed effort to give gifts back to God which strive to be commensurate with that which God has given to you!

Leave the decorations up – Great solemnities of the Church are celebrated as Octaves, eight days long. The celebration of Christmas extends for the 12 Days until the Epiphany on January 6th. We wear white vestments for the Christmas season until the Baptism of the Lord on January 9th. The oldest tradition in the Church is for Christmastide to last 40 days, until the Feast of the Presentation of the Lord on February 2nd. The moral of the story... don't take down the decorations just yet!

Wear your faith – Many resolutions are about showing ourselves in a new and better way. Do you have a Cross or Crucifix on a chain to wear every day? A Scapular to wear and pray about whenever you feel it? This New Year get one, and if you have one, give one to someone who doesn't.

Lose the wait – Can I offer a priest's suggestion for a resolution? Whatever time you set for yourself to leave home for Mass each week, move it five minutes earlier. Why wait until the last minute (or later) to get to the church for the celebration of the Eucharist?

Get more active – For every mile you resolve to walk, or every visit you now plan to make to the health club, consider making the same increase in commitment to volunteering at the parish or in some human concerns outreach effort.

Read a Good Book – Better yet, read the Good Book. Whether you do the Bible in a Year on the internet, flip through a passage a day calendar, or join a Bible Study for the first time, take more time with Sacred Scriptures in the year to come.

WWJD – We should not need a rubber bracelet as a daily reminder, but there is much fruit to be borne by prayerfully considering what Jesus would do in a world so divided by opinions about masks and vaccines, politics and parties. We are even surprisingly divided by questions about how much every life matters. If you think you may have added to these divisions, ask yourself "What Would Jesus Do?"

Call your Mother – Yes, a phone call or two each week to your mom is a great resolution. But don't forget to offer a Rosary or two, or a Perpetual Help Devotion once or twice each week.

No matter what your specific resolutions are, in matters of faith, family, and community, please resolve to do whatever it takes to make 2022 better than 2021.

Blessings to all!

EPIPHANY CHALK BLESSING

To celebrate the Epiphany in your own home, we invite every household to pick up a piece of Blessed chalk and a blessing card as you leave Mass to take and Bless your home. It is a traditional ritual which asks God's blessing on your home and on those who visit or live there. It is an invitation for Jesus to be a daily guest in our homes, our comings and goings, our conversations, our work and play, our joys and sorrows. Chalk and the blessing card are located in the entrances.

The SE Education on Racism committee asks you to consider participating in a day of service on MLK Day to honor the legacy of Dr. King. Then, join us for a prayer service on MLK Day, January 17, 2022, at 7pm in the Church. The service will include a "Stations of the Cross: Overcoming Racism".

The committee is offering the prayer service based on the Catholic Social Teaching of Solidarity, which states:

We are one human family whatever our national, racial, ethnic, economic, and ideological differences. We are our brothers and sisters keepers, wherever they may be. Loving our neighbor has global dimensions in a shrinking world. At the core of the virtue of solidarity is the pursuit of justice and peace. Pope Paul VI taught that if you want peace, work for justice. The Gospel calls us to be peacemakers. Our love for all our sisters and brothers demands that we promote peace in a world surrounded by violence and conflict.
