NEW TO OUR PARISH?

We'd love to have you join our faith community! Start the process online by visiting our website: steugenecongregation.org or call the parish office at (414) 918-1102. Whether you are a parishioner, a visitor, a Catholic returning to the Church or someone seeking faith, we hope you find your time among us inviting & welcoming.

Please feel free to ask anyone for assistance.

THE MOST HOLY BODY AND
BLOOD OF CHRIST

They all ate and were satisfied. - Lk 9:16

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass (2001, 1998, 1970 CCD, ©LPI)

We are excited to announce our newly appointed Pastor,
Very Rev. Mark Payne, and Associate Pastor, Rev. Tonny Kizza.

They will begin their service at our parishes on June 21st.

Please join us in welcoming both priests and pray for them during this time of transition.

*Gracious and loving God, we thank you for the gift of our newly appointed priests.
Through them, we experience your presence in the sacraments.*

*Help our priests to be strong in their vocation.
Set their souls on fire with love for your people.*

*Grant them the wisdom, understanding, and strength they need to follow in the footsteps of Jesus.
Inspire them with the vision of your Kingdom.*

*Give them the words they need to spread the Gospel.
Allow them to experience joy in their ministry.*

*Help them to become instruments of your divine grace.
We ask this through Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns as our Eternal Priest.*

Amen.

Very Rev. Mark Payne

Rev. Tonny Kizza

My dear friends -

Something I hope to do before I die is the Camino de Santiago, "The Way of St. James." The Camino is a pilgrimage route that usually takes about 30 days to complete, depending on your starting point. Some routes can take up to 90 days! (That is the one I would love to try). A common route begins in the South of France and takes you all across Northern Spain until you reach your final destination, Santiago de Compostela, which translated means "St. James of the Field of Stars." The apostle James, one of the Sons of Thunder and one of Jesus' closest friends is buried there, and people have been traveling to visit his final resting place for millennia.

I've never met someone who has completed the Camino who was not changed by the pilgrimage. There is something about the intensity of the journey that leaves a mark on you. Those who have completed it talk of the breathtaking views of the countryside, the rigorous climbs, and the pain that you have to push through. Something that everyone points to as a gift of the journey is the people that you meet along the way. People from all over the world walk this pilgrimage, all for different reasons. To be able to meet these people and walk with them for a while and get to know their life story is incredibly rewarding. And then, after walking with them for a while, you part ways and continue your journey. When you part ways, traditionally you wish one another, "Buen Camino!" which means, "Good journey!"

I can't help but think of this as I reflect on the past number of years that I have been gifted with here at St. Monica and St. Eugene. You have known me for 7 years and have walked with me. You met me when I was still terrified of the life that God may be calling me to, and stand with me now as I am in awe of its beauty. God has used you to reveal to me the beauty of this life. To have been able to meet you, walk with, get to know your story, and to share in your joys and sorrows has been one of the greatest privileges of my life. You have left a mark on me, and I will never be the same. From the bottom of my heart I thank you, and I love you. I will miss you! I will not be far away though. I have been assigned as the Pastor of St. James in Mukwonago and St. Theresa in Eagle. Don't be a stranger! It would be wonderful to see you there sometime.

Even though we part ways now, we are headed in the same direction. All of us continue the same camino of life as we walk with our eyes fixed on the Lord and on His Kingdom. Perhaps our paths will cross again as we make our way...perhaps not. But no matter what, I wait with anticipation and hope to see you all again at the final destination, in the glorious "field of stars."

And so I say to you all, "Buen Camino!"

Fr. Jordan

Farewell & Good Luck, Fr Jordan!

Thank you for everything, Fr Jordan!
 You have been such a blessing to the St. Eugene & St. Monica communities. Best of luck to you as the Pastor of St. James in Mukwonago & St. Theresa in Eagle.
 You will be greatly missed!
 Take care!

HELP NEEDED! The Liturgy Commission for St. Eugene needs a volunteer to co-coordinate the scheduling of ministers. Computer skills would be helpful. The parish uses Ministry Scheduler Pro (MSP) and training on how to use the program would be provided. If you are interested or know of someone who might be able to volunteer, please contact Mark Konewko at mkonewko@stme.church. Thank you.

YOUR STEWARDSHIP: JULY 1–MAY 29

YTD Actual: $1,066,171
 YTD Budget: $1,128,141 (—$61,970)

“Despite strict cost controls, St. Eugene is currently anticipating a net loss in excess of $40,000 for the current fiscal year.”
 ~Luke Junk, St. Eugene Finance Council

On June 3, our eighth grade class celebrated Mass together one last time before their graduation and awards ceremony. Congratulations to this year's award recipients.

Knights of Columbus Scholarship

For many years, St. Eugene School has been blessed to have the Knights of Columbus sponsor a $500.00 scholarship for a student to use at a Catholic high school. Students complete an application and must demonstrate high academic achievement and a commitment to living out our Catholic faith. This year's James Kirschling Memorial Scholarship for 2022 winner is Rose Fleisch who will be attending Divine Savior Holy Angels High School.

Mackin Award

The Mackin Award is presented to graduates in honor of Fr. Mackin, founding pastor of St. Eugene Congregation and School. The recipients must demonstrate positive attributes in the areas of athletic skill, academic effort and overall attitude. The 2022 Mackin awards go to Rose Fleisch and Isaac Tomczuk.

Fr. Kroll Award

The Fr. Kroll Award is presented in honor of Fr. Robert Kroll, SJ, a 1979 graduate of St. Eugene School. This award is presented to a student who best exhibits a respect for our Catholic heritage, takes an active role in the parish community through service to others and exemplifies Christian values. This year's recipient has served others by helping at soup kitchens, visiting nursing homes, cooking at shelters, being a Worship Circle leader, cantoring at school Masses, being an Advent prayer leader, volunteering at the school auction, singing with the Children's Choir, donating clothing, and always showing respect, kindness and compassion in her daily interactions. Congratulations to the 2022 Fr. Kroll Award recipient Pascale Teresa Kenfack Nouza.
