LITURGY & PRAYER

O Lord, God of our fathers, who bestowed on Saints Joachim & Anne this grace, that of them should be born the mother of your incarnate Son,
 grant, through the prayers of both,
 that we may attain the salvation
 you have promised to your people.
 Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
 God, for ever and ever. Amen.

ONE MINUTE CATECHISM

The One Minute Catechism: The Eucharist - Part VII (CCC 1322-1419) We continue to examine vital truths about the Eucharist. The Church urges us to receive Holy Communion at each Mass; however, we are only obligated to receive Communion once per year, some time during the Easter Season. Also, since Christ is fully present in both the consecrated Bread and Wine, it is sufficient to receive Him as either bread or wine alone. Communion is more complete, however, when we receive both the Body and Blood.

Holy Communion increases our union with Christ. Just like regular food sustains our physical life, Holy Communion sustains our spiritual life. It moves us away from sin, strengthening our moral resolve to avoid evil and to turn our lives toward God. Indeed, in receiving Holy Communion, we actually receive forgiveness for our venial sins.

As we have discussed, Christ is wholly present in the Eucharist. To help us better understand this sacred mystery of the Real Presence, since the Middle Ages, the Church has used the doctrine of “transubstantiation.” Transubstantiation means that the true substance of the bread and wine is changed into the Body and Blood of Christ while the appearances (color, shape, weight, chemical composition) of the bread and wine remain the same. In other words, in the Consecration, the substance and underlying reality of the bread and wine becomes the Body and Blood of Christ even though the bread and wine appear unchanged.

The Real Presence of Jesus Christ remains in the consecrated bread and wine even after the Mass is finished. Accordingly, after Communion has been distributed, we place any remaining hosts in the tabernacle. If any of the Precious Blood remains, it should be reverently consumed. The hosts in the tabernacle are “reserved” to provide Communion for the sick and dying (Viaticum). By praying before the tabernacle, we are worshiping in the Real Presence of Jesus Christ. Because Christ is present, we should always genuflect before the tabernacle and genuflect or kneel when the Blessed Sacrament is exposed for prayer, as in Eucharistic Adoration.

Reflect: The next time you kneel before Mass ponder the truth that Jesus Christ is really present in the tabernacle.

Pray: My God, I love You with all my heart, with all my soul, with all my mind, and with all my strength.

Love Thy Neighbor

The Fourth of July commemorates the signing of the Declaration of Independence in 1776, which announced to the world that the newly named “United States of America” had declared its independence from Great Britain. July 2 also marked the anniversary of another major step towards freedom and equality for all US citizens -- the Civil Rights Act of 1964. That law prohibited segregation in public places and banned employment discrimination based on race, color, religion, sex or national origin. Archbishop Kurtz, the president of the USCCB at the time of the 50th Anniversary of the law passing, noted “The Civil Rights Act was a monumental step forward and since then, we have made even more progress in this vital work of transforming hearts and minds, but there is still much work to do.... We must therefore continue to work against the destructive influence of racism....” As people of goodwill have done throughout our country’s history, may we continue to strive for more perfect “liberty and justice for all”.

Judge Derek Mosley with lead a discussion of Unconscious Bias. We all hold some form of unconscious bias, and the key is to recognize that we have it and employ techniques to mitigate it.

Judge Mosley graduated from Marquette University Law School in 1995. He served as an Assistant District Attorney for Milwaukee County from 1995-2002. While serving as Assistant District Attorney, Judge Mosley founded the Milwaukee County District Attorney's Community Prosecution Unit. This unit places assistant district attorneys in various neighborhoods throughout the City of Milwaukee to work with residents to reduce urban blight and to improve the quality of life. In 2004, Judge Mosley was appointed Chief Judge of the Milwaukee Municipal Court.

The discussion is sponsored by the SE Education on Racism Subcommittee
