

ST. PETER'S PARISH

2224 30TH AVENUE — KENOSHA, WI 53144

SERVED BY MARIAN FATHERS SINCE 1926

“Heaven and earth will pass away,
but my words will not pass away.”

Mark 13:31

Mother of grace, o Mary blest,
Mother of Mercy, to Thee we fly;
Shield us in life from the enemy,
Yourself receive us when we die.

O Jesus, born of Virgin bright,
Immortal glory be to Thee;
Praise to the Father infinite,
And the Holy Spirit eternally. Amen

MY WORDS WILL REMAIN

During the course of a single week we hear a lot of words, but how many of them are worth remembering? Here each Sunday we hear the words of Christ, words that were written down by the people who knew him, and were preserved for us over the centuries by the Church. Thus Christ's promise has come true: “All things will pass, but my words will remain”. How will do we listen to his words, and how hard do we try to practice them in our lives? Let us ask pardon for the way we fail to let his words transform our lives.

1st READING (Daniel 12:1-3) This contains a vision of the prophet Daniel about the end of time. It introduces the belief in a resurrection of the dead and the notion of retribution after death.

2nd READING (Hebrews 10:11-14). This reading insists on the superiority of the sacrifice made by Christ over all the sacrifices of the old law.

GOSPEL (Mark 13:24-32). This talks about the destruction of Jerusalem and the second coming of Christ. Certain signs will precede the first, but the time of the second is known only to God.

Mary, Mother of Mercy

"Hail Holy Queen, Mother of Mercy." For centuries people have invoked Mary under this title, and now, in modern times, St. John Paul II presented it to us again to emphasize the unique role Mary plays in God's eternal plan of mercy. In his encyclical letter Rich in Mercy, he devotes an entire section to Mary, the "Mother of Mercy." She is the one, he explains, who has the deepest understanding of God's mercy, the one who, more than anyone else, deserved and received mercy. Called in a special way to share her Son's mission to reveal His love, she continues to proclaim His mercy "from generation to generation" (Diary, 9).

For St. Faustina, Mary was a constant source of God's Mercy, as mother, guardian, teacher, and intercessor. From Mary, she received a special gift of purity, strength in suffering, and countless lessons on the spiritual life. "Mary is my Instructor," she writes, "who is ever teaching me how to live for God" (620). "The more I imitate the Mother of God, the more deeply I get to know God" (843). "Before every Holy Communion, I earnestly ask the Mother of God to help me prepare my soul for the coming of her Son" (1114). "She has taught me how to love God interiorly and also how to carry out His will in all things" (40). "O Mary, my Mother, I place everything in your hands" (79). "O Mary, you are joy, because through you God descended to earth and into my heart" (40).

The Women's League is sponsoring a coat drive November 14th — 28th. They are looking for donations of men's and women's coats for the Kenosha County Jail to be given to prisoners upon their release for those who have no winter coats. Please bring donated coats to the lobby. Thank you.

Don't forget to pray for our soldiers!
