SERVED BY MARIAN FATHERS SINCE 1926

DOING OUR WINTER WORK

As we begin Advent we naturally think of the coming of Christ. We live between two comings of Christ—his first coming in humility and weakness, and his second coming in majesty and power.

With each passing year, as St. Paul says, ‘our salvation is nearer than when we first believed.’ Let us reflect for a moment on how much we need the Lord’s salvation in our lives and in the world.

The Lord lives on in his Church. Let us turn to him with confidence, asking him to make the salvation he won for us a reality.

You bring us wisdom, fresh understanding and new vision. Lord, have mercy.

You bring us the good news, and the power which will transform our lives. Christ, have mercy.

You bring us the truth, showing us the way to eternal life. Lord, have mercy.

1st READING (Jeremiah 33:14-16). The prophet says that a time will come when God will be true to his promise. The Son of David (that is, The Messiah) will stand among his people. His reign will be marked by wisdom, justice and integrity.

2nd READING (1 Thess. 3:12-4:2). Paul prays that the Lord may deepen the love the Thessalonians have for each other, a love that will then reach out to all people. This they will be ready for the second coming of Christ.

GOSPEL (Luke 21:25-28, 34-36). In language borrowed from the Old Testament Luke describes the final coming of Christ. Christians should not fear this. Rather, they should look forward to it and prepare for it through prayer and right living.

"No duty is more urgent than that of returning thanks." - St. Ambrose
St. Ambrose reminds us that it's not only necessary but urgent to thank others, because thankfulness breeds appreciation and kindness.

Through our daily prayer we give thanks to God for the many gifts he has bestowed upon our ASCS community. On behalf of the 400 students and staff at ASCS, we are thankful for our parents and families who choose Catholic education for their children. We are thankful for the many volunteers that help our school by contributing their time and talents. We are thankful for the continued assistance and prayers from our ten supporting parishes. With gratitude in our hearts, Happy Thanksgiving from All Saints Catholic School!

REFLECTION

Today, on a bus, I saw a girl with golden hair;
I envied her and wished I were as fair,
When suddenly she rose to leave I saw her hobble down the aisle; she had one leg and wore a crutch, but as she passed — a smile.
O God, forgive me when I whine,
I have two legs the world is mine.

I stopped to buy some candy; the las who sold it had such charm; I talked with him; if I were late it would do no harm.
And as I left he said: ' I thank you, you have been so kind; it's nice to talk with folks like you — you see, I'm blind.'

O God forgive me when I whine,
I have two eyes the world is mine.

Later, on the street, I saw a child with eyes of blue; he stood and watched the others play,
not knowing what to do.

I stopped a moment, then I said: 'Why don't you join the others, dear?

He looked ahead without a word, and then I knew he could not hear.

O God forgive me when I whine,
I have two ears the world is mine.

With feet to take me where I'd go,
With eyes to see the sunsets glow,
With ears to hear what I know,
I'm blessed indeed, the world is mine.
