

ST. PETER'S PARISH

2224 30TH AVENUE — KENOSHA, WI 53144

SERVED BY MARIAN FATHERS SINCE 1926

“Blessed are you when people hate you, and when they exclude and insult you, and denounce your name as evil on account of the Son of Man.” Luke 6:22

THE WORLD OF THE BEATITUDES

The Gospel of today's Mass plunges us into the world of the Beatitudes. Here we discover the values Christ held up before his disciples. They are so different from those which are accepted as desirable by ordinary sensible people that they take us into a new world.

Which world do we belong to? For instance, when making important decisions, do we ever consult Christ and his Gospel?

Lord, Jesus, you teach us that we become truly rich not by receiving but by giving. Lord, have mercy.

Lord, Jesus, you teach us that the greatest person is not the one who is served but the one who serves. Christ, have mercy.

Lord Jesus, you help us to find peace of soul not by doing what is popular or profitable but what is right. Lord, have mercy.

1st READING (Jeremiah 17:5-8). The life of those who trust in man is as precarious as that of a shrub growing in the desert. Whereas the life of those who trust in God is as sure as that of a tree growing by the waterside.

2nd READING (1 Cor 15:12, 16-20). The resurrection of Christ is the foundation on which our faith and hope rest.

GOSPEL (Luke 6:17, 20-26). This contains Luke's version of the Beatitudes. (Whereas Matthew has nine beatitudes, Luke has only four, with however four corresponding 'woes').

THE BEATITUDES

When you are rich, when you have a name, or when you are a member of a respected group, you are never really oppressed. When in difficulty, only a phone call and everything is fixed up.

But when you have no friends, when you are an immigrant and you speak the language badly, you are quickly oppressed, for you cannot defend yourself. This is true of the sick, the handicapped, prisoners, and all those who have no voice.

Thank You
God for always being there for me, no matter what I am going through.
For loving me,
forgiving me,
and walking
by my side.
You are my rock and comforter.
Amen

They are the oppressed ones, and they are numerous in our society. There are many without work, with no security, living off meager wages, living day by day in unbearable situations.

Each of us has met them. They are all around us. But what is frightening is that the disciples of Jesus are so frequently in comfort.

On which side of the road was Jesus? On which side of the road are his disciples?
