

ST. PETER'S PARISH

2224 30TH AVENUE— KENOSHA, WI 53144

SERVED BY MARIAN FATHERS SINCE 1926

The devil said to him, "All this will be yours, if you worship me." Jesus said to him in reply, "It is written: You shall worship the Lord, your God, and him alone shall you serve." Luke 4:6a, 7-8

LENT

We can approach Christ with great confidence that he understands us because, as today's liturgy reminds us, he shared our human weaknesses and temptations. Yet he did not sin. He remained faithful and true to his father. He will help us who know that we have sinned, to be faithful also.

Lord Jesus, you experienced the same weaknesses as we experienced. Lord, have mercy.

Lord Jesus, you experienced the same temptations as we experience. Lord, have mercy.

Lord Jesus, you experienced the same frustrations and difficulties as we experience. Lord, have mercy.

1st READING (Deuteronomy 26:4-10). This describes the ceremony of the offering to God of the first fruits. Through it the people recognize all that God had done for them especially in the Exodus. Our worship of God is also a recognition of the favors to us.

2nd READING (Romans 10:8-13). The core of the credo is that Jesus is our risen Savior. If anyone, Jew or Gentile, can say that and live by it, he or she will be saved.

GOSPEL (Luke 4:1-13). Jesus was tempted like we are but he did not sin. Through his grace we too can resist temptation and overcome sin.

My past, O Lord to Your mercy;
my present to
Your love;
my future to Your providence.

Remember our Comfort Drive Collection at the Stations of the Cross has begun. Please feel free to donate items that are on our list for the homeless. Thank you.

ACT OF CONTRITION

*O MY God, I am heartily sorry for having offended Thee
and I detest all my sins
because of Thy just punishments,
but most of all
because they offend Thee, my God, who art all good
and deserving of all my love.
I firmly resolve,
with the help of Thy grace,
to sin no more
and avoid the near occasions of sin.
Amen.*

It has been raining since early morning. I have been forced to stay indoors, meditating on the shortcomings of life. Our competitive world has made up my mind to do something about it. I cannot hope to convert even one person. I will begin with the person I know best — myself.

But where shall I begin? Let me see. I know that I am lazy and selfish, vain, proud and unforgiving. I could be kinder, gentler and more considerate. But what's this? I don't believe it. It's stopped raining. So I can go outdoors again. I need some fresh air. I'll go for a long walk. I can reform myself tomorrow, that is, provided it's raining, and I'm forced to stay indoors, meditating on the shortcomings of life.

Last weekend nine men from St. Peter's joined sixteen men from throughout the archdiocese for a guided retreat at the Redemptorist Retreat Center in Oconomowoc WI. The theme of the retreat was Healing in a Wounded World. A weekend retreat provides a great opportunity for quiet time, rest and spiritual renewal. If you're interested in learning more about retreats be sure to check the website www.redemptoristretreat.org. There are also some fliers available in the church lobby.

God has a plan for your life. The enemy has a plan for your life. Be ready for both. Just be wise enough to know which one to battle and which one to embrace.

See, I have today set before you life and good, death and evil. If you obey the commandments of the LORD, your God, which I am giving you today, loving the LORD, your God, and walking in his ways, and keeping his commandments, statutes and ordinances, you will live and grow numerous, and the LORD, your God, will bless you. If, however, your heart turns away and you do not obey, but are led astray and bow down to other gods and serve them, I tell you today that you will certainly perish. Deuteronomy 30:15-18
