

ST. PETER'S PARISH

2224 30TH AVENUE— KENOSHA, WI 53144

SERVED BY MARIAN FATHERS SINCE 1926

Jesus said to them, "Come, have breakfast." And none of the disciples dared to ask him, "Who are you?" because they realized it was the Lord. Jesus came over and took the bread and gave it to them, and in like manner the fish. John 21:12-13

2nd READING (Rev. 5:11-14). This gives us part of the heavenly liturgies that are a feature of the book of the Apocalypse. It is a hymn in praise of the crucified and risen Christ.

GOSPEL (John 21:1-19). This relates an appearance of the risen Jesus to seven of his apostles on the shore of the lake of Gennesareth. The incident is built around Peter.

STRANGER ON THE SHORE

We know how badly Peter acted on the night of the Lord's passion; how he denied his Master, not once but three times. Yet in today's Gospel we will see how Christ restored him to where he was before and confirmed him as chief shepherd of his flock.

Let us pause to remember the times we have written people off or taken revenge on them when they disappointed us.

Christ does not write us off. He gives us a chance to cancel out our failures by love.

Lord Jesus, you restore life to all those who sink into the grave of remorse and despair. Lord, have mercy.

Lord Jesus, your anger lasts but for a moment; your favor lasts all life long. Christ, have mercy.

Lord Jesus, you have changed our mourning into dancing by your loving forgiveness. Lord, have mercy.

1st READING (Acts 5:27-32, 40-41). The apostles have been imprisoned and put on trial because of their preaching of the Gospel. But they are undeterred. In fact they are glad to suffer for Christ.

A Prayer for Ukraine

God of love. Our world is wrought with war and violence, as brother turns on brother, and the innocent awake to gunfire and bombs. May Your compassion and healing move hearts and bring a new day to Ukraine. Fortify your children to resist aggression and instead become instruments of peace. We ask this in the name of the One who is the Prince of Peace, Jesus Christ. Amen.

Don't forget to pray for our soldiers!

Nobody likes to fail. The apostles had failed. But the Stranger on the shore got them to say: 'We caught nothing – we failed.' If we can say these words in the presence of someone we trust, then suddenly failure loses its power over us. It is sometimes easier to say to a sympathetic stranger than to a friend.

Then the Stranger told them to let down the net once more. They did so and made a large catch of fish. This shows that even when Christ is only a shadowy figure on the margins of our lives, we are still okay if we do what he says.

But once Peter recognized the Stranger he wanted to encounter him, he wanted to be near him.

There is a world of difference between those who have encountered the risen Lord, and those who obey a stranger. The risen Lord nourishes those who encounter him, and he gives them a task to do. He says to them: 'Feed my lambs, feed my sheep'.
