BANNS OF MARRIAGE

I. MICHAEL KANOPI & KIM BEIMEL
I. PATRICK ZIELINSKI/DAYLE DUFFEK

From the Shared Pastor's Desk

1.) Ss. Simon & Jude – We know next to nothing of these apostles of the Lord; once their names are mentioned with an assortment of little personal interest hints, they disappear from the pages of the New Testament. Simon was called the "Canaanite" or the "Zealot." Both terms mean he was either a member of the Zealots, a fanatical group of Jews plotting an armed revolt against Roman occupying authorities & forces which, when attempted in 70AD, resulted in the complete destruction of Jerusalem or simply that he was zealous by nature and in his religious adherence; might have been called a "religious nut." Sometimes he is called Simon the Less to distinguish him from Simon Peter. Jude is referred as "Judas of James" or "Judas not Iscariot" and normally identified as the apostle Thaddeus mentioned in Matthew and Mark's gospels. "Judas of James" would normally have meant he was the son of James, but he's also thought to have been the brother of James as that's what's said in the epistle commonly attributed to his authorship. Venerated as martyrs, one legend states they both were put to death on the same day as they were missionaries in the same region of Persia. Jude is best known as the saint whose intercession we seek for hopeless cases and, while origin of this devotion is unclear, speculation says that, under normal circumstances, no one sought his intercession as his name sounded too much like of Judas Iscariot! So only when every other saint had proved unable to assist the faithful in time of great need would desperate Christians turn to Jude …

2.) World Mission Sunday – Is this weekend and has much more to do with what it means to be the Church than giving help in a second collection to missionaries in far off, foreign lands! In fact, all of our recent Popes have said clearly that the Church is by its nature missionary. The concluding rites of every Mass more than hint at this. We're told to "Go forth …" which is a short form of Jesus' own commissioning of His first followers to make disciples of all nations, "baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you," and us, too! "Go and announce the Gospel of the Lord" or "Go in peace, glorifying the Lord by your life" make the missionary purpose of our worship even more clear. Mass isn't just a good beginning of our week (it is and can be) nor is it something we do first and foremost for our personal salvations (if that were the case each of us would have need of private Masses); Mass is where I am given further formation in worship as a disciple who is sent to others so they can meet and fall in love with Jesus! One of our older parishioners does just that; when he goes out, he always wears a T-Shirt that says "Be a Saint!" Many times that gets people he meets talking religion (otherwise somewhat taboo in our culture), asking about his faith and where he goes to church; cheerfully, simply he shares what he believes, knows and lives by and then invites them to Mass; I've been happy to greet the results of his conversations at our church doors! He isn't remarkable by any means; he is just a disciple, so "go forth," do likewise!

3.) 2021 Catholic Stewardship Appeal – Reports further progress toward our goal of $58,710, exceeded by 169.12% as our gifts now total $99,282 from 297 donors or 22.62% of our registered membership; your generosity is amazing! Archdiocesan wide the goal of $8.1 million was met by over 27,712 total donors; those still discerning gifts can help us be overachievers; thank you for participating.

4.) Something to Think Over – If you go to Confession and still find yourself worrying afterwards about the sins you've committed and just confessed, suddenly remember one you're not sure you mentioned from recent days or quite some time ago, consider this: "It is an offense against God's mercy to keep thinking about one's sins after the soul is convinced of having done wrong, has been humbled during Confession, and is ready to die rather than to offend God again." Maria Rosario Del Genio

5.) The Feast of All Saints – While not a holyday of obligation this year as it falls on a Monday, we nonetheless encourage and welcome your participation at the Masses scheduled for cluster parishioners @ 8AM & 5PM in St. Peter Church.

Tomislav Čunović started the first 40 Days for Life campaign in Frankfurt, Germany in 2017It hasn't been easy. Tomislav and his team have withstood obstacles--from attacks by satanists to 150-metre buffer zones, smoke bombs, & incantations.....but they continue to expand pro-life prayer and witness in Frankfurt, which is now hosting its 10th 40 Days for Life campaign. "At this challenging point for the pro-life movement in Germany, a growing number of young participants is showing up on the street to pray," said Markus, who now leads the Frankfurt vigil. "It's such a gift to know that the fruit of prayer is not dependent on political tactics but on the love of God."

FORMED PICK OF THE WEEK Oct 24, 2021

THE INNOCENCE OF FATHER BROWN AUDIO BOOK BY G.K. CHESTERTON

One of the most memorable sleuths in the canon of detective fiction has to be Father Brown, the small priest with "a face as round and dull as a Norfolk dumpling", but who nevertheless outwits the greatest criminal minds with his wisdom regarding human nature. Brought to life here by actor Kevin O'Brien in a series of dramatic readings.
