THE EPIPHANY OF THE LORD

They were overjoyed at seeing the star, and on entering the house they saw the child with Mary his mother. They prostrated themselves and did him homage. Then they opened their treasures and offered him gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh. - Mt 2:10-11

FORMED NOW! HOW TO PRAY

Whether you are a veteran in the spiritual life or are just beginning, start this year off right by recommitting yourself to prayer! Join Drs. Tim Gray and Elizabeth Klein as they discuss ways to kickstart your prayer life this year!

THE EPIPHANY OF THE LORD, JANUARY 2, 2022

FROM THE SHARED PASTOR'S DESK

1.) This Weekend's – Feast of the Epiphany is among my favorite in the church year! While fascinated by a moving star, the mysterious Magi (Casper, Balthasar, and Melchior are their traditional names) and their exotic gifts of gold, frankincense and myrrh, the meaning embedded in this part of the infancy narratives of Jesus is multivalent, like the layers of an onion! First, without knowing the Hebrew Scriptures, they're able to discover the true God as the heavens' declare His glory. Second, despite their kingly status, they willingly adore and bend the knee to kingliness disguised in the flesh of a shivering baby; true faith leads to humility. Third, traditionally depicted as old, middle aged and younger, one white, another black, and still another brown, there seems to be no discrimination at the manger; there are also no preferences as sometimes given certain social status; wealthy kings mingle happily with poor shepherds! Fourth, gifts of gold, frankincense and myrrh are appropriate for poor parents of a newborn mouth to feed – gold as their go-fund-me for future expenses, frankincense to deodorize the smell of diapers in an already fragrant stable, and myrrh as medicine for sometimes upset tummies of newborn – and a symbolic connection of the Lord's birth with His death and Resurrection – “myrrh ... for Him who should die and be buried for the mortal human race, gold for a King whose kingdom will have no end and is not of this world, frankincense because He is God.” Fifth, when dreams tell them not to return to Herod, they're prayerfully open to the mysterious ways of God while risking worldly displeasure; they, as all believers, must obey God, not men! This and more in a charming account likely given Matthew by Mary who remembered and treasured this and all things related to her Son's birth and life, handing it on for the sake of His Bride, the Church!

2.) New Year's Resolutions – Along with health and fitness topics also hear many wanting to pray more this year than last. Knowing that a new year has the same amount of days, hours and minutes as a previous year and will also have its' fair share of anxieties and worries to consume them, maybe we ought not try so much to pray more but to pray better! Pope Francis says some kinds of piety and prayer are heretical, calling them “intimism,” a religiosity that makes prayer something for me more than it is for God; it calms me and I feel “fuller” of God; it is characterized by overly sentimental attachment to prayers that safely and tightly swaddle us in comfort without consideration that prayer is for God's glory and honor as well as to strengthen us in His service before they're for us; prayer can be misused when we try to get God to agree with our dreams, hopes, needs and wills before we consider whether what we actually want changed or to be done for us might not be part of His will for us in the first place; our prayer is directed to a heavenly Father Who knows best and loves us but whose thoughts and ways are certainly not our own; prayer ought not to be about changing God to agree with us but about allowing God to change us more completely and fully into His image and

FROM THE SHARED PASTOR'S DESK (CONTINUED): likeness, so much so that at some point we might say, as St. Paul did, that it is no longer our human lives that we live but it is Christ who is alive in us. Instead of trying to pray more we might want to pray better.

3.) Home Blessing – Please call one of our priests or our deacon if you'd like your home blessed at some time during the Christmas season; we'd be happy to visit you and share this Catholic holiday tradition!

Dear Parishioners,
“On behalf of the St. Kilian Conference of St. Vincent de Paul, thank you for the generous Thanksgiving collection donation of $264. Your financial support helps us continue to help those in need in the Slinger & Hartford areas. In our last fiscal year, we helped area residents with over $64,000 in rent and utility assistance, as well as food and gas cards. We also assisted with store vouchers for clothing, household items, mattresses and school supplies. Over 1,200 people received our help, and we made 379 home/virtual visits. The Covid virus has affected both our clients and how we communicate with them. During the home/virtual visits, we are able to assess the individual and family needs and make referrals for additional help if needed, as well as listen to their stories. We greatly appreciate your help. Thanks you so very much!”
