FROM THE SHARED PASTOR'S DESK

1.) St. Valentine – While Monday will be filled socially with candy, cards and flowers, its' vital that we who believe in love celebrate its' true strength more confidently than often flimsy romantic sentiments may allow expressed. For this we need to get better acquainted with St. Valentine. He was a priest in the 3rd century church at Rome, a famous healer and a teacher who assisted many martyrs during a particularly violent outbreak of persecution. Apprehended in so doing, a great many efforts were made to get him to renounce his faith. When these proved ineffectual he was commanded to be beaten to death by clubs and then beheaded! His pictures show him dressed in priestly vestments, a book of scriptures in his left hand, his right hand uplifted in the gesture of blessing, standing beside a tree-stump upon which leans an axe. One thing that may have aroused the ire of Roman authorities more than others is that he witnessed the marriages of Roman soldiers in violation of an imperial edict that they remain single on the grounds that it made them better fighters. The judge who condemned him to death in 269, Asterius by name, did so despite the fact that Valentine had cured his daughter of blindness! Tradition has it that on the night before he was to die, Valentine is said to have written letter to this young woman, encouraging her to believe in the Gospel she'd heard and in Jesus who'd healed her. The way he signed it has inspired romantic missives ever since – "From Your Valentine." A priest long-ago in Rome understood what St. Paul had said so well before about what true love is: "Love believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things; love never fails." While it might be social suicide to forget to give or send something to your valentines, recognize that the greatest gift is not the sweets, treats, blossoms or greeting cards; the greatest gift is something that can never pass or wither or fade; it is love so determined to give of itself for the good of others that nothing but death is able to separate or stop it from being true to itself. Happy Valentine's Day!!

2.) St. Lawrence Seminary HS – While seminarians these days discern their vocation during college or thereafter, there are some who display early interest who might profit from attending a high school seminary run by the Capuchins at Mt. Calvary. It is an affordable, private education, but some families might benefit from extra help with a $2,000 scholarship that priests, principals & faith formation directors are able to arrange. Interested? Contact Andrea School (Admissions Coordinator) at aschool@stlawrence.edu or (920)-753-7512; virtual visit www.stlawrence.edu.

3.) Pandemic Era Scams – We are hearing of an increased number of scams during this pandemic; many of these messages are made to appear as if coming from a trusted person you may know; parish identifications are also being used to try to solicit funds but all these messages are from sources other than the parish. Please be cautious!

FROM THE SHARED PASTOR'S DESK (CONTINUED):

- 4.) Lent – Begins Ash Wednesday, March 2: "Come Back to Me with All Your Heart, Not Just a Part!"
- 5.) In Challenging Times – The words of God's saints inspire us to persevere. Deacon Bob shared a quote from Blessed Solanus Casey some time ago and ran out of the holy cards he was handing out. I keep mine on my desk near the phone! "Worry is a weakness from which very few of us are entirely free. We must be on guard against this most insidious enemy of our peace of soul. Instead, let us foster confidence in God, and thank Him ahead of time for whatever He chooses to send us." For those who missed these words, take them to heart and use them for the good!

Note from Fr. Jonathon: Just a heads up that I will be away for my annual silent retreat from February 14-25. See you when I return! God bless!

Scrip Program is looking for your help! We sell SCRIP at weekend Masses! We are in need of help at Saturday 5PM and Sunday 7:30 & 10:30AM Masses. We have several dedicated volunteers who have helped with this program for years, and now we are in need of additional volunteers. With enough volunteers, assigned days would only fall every 6-8 weeks (that's about 6-8 times a year!) Attend Mass as always, but come 15-20 minutes early and stay 15 minutes afterwards to fill Scrip orders for Mass-goers. It's a fun way to visit with fellow parishioners and families! Contact Crystal Gehl if you can help. Scrip is now available after all weekend Masses (except 8PM on Saturdays). Scrip can be ordered with prestopay, check, or cash. Also available based on inventory in the school office. Scrip Office Hours are Monday-Friday 8AM-4PM. Contact: Yvonne 262-644-8083 x3105 or schoolsecretary@stpeterslinger.org or Cheryl 262-644-8083 x3100 or cheryl.jaeger@stpeterslinger.org.
