

29TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"But it shall not be so among you. Rather, whoever wishes to be great among you will be your servant; whoever wishes to be first among you will be the slave of all. For the Son of Man did not come to be served but to serve and to give his life as a ransom for many." - Mk 10:43-45

THIS IS WORLD MISSION SUNDAY

This collection serves as a worldwide effort to provide for the strengthening of more than 1,000 local churches in Asia and Africa, the Pacific Islands, and parts of Latin America and Europe. Through the work of these churches and their witness to Christ, the poor receive practical help and experience God's love, mercy, and peace. Please keep the Pope's missions in your prayers and be generous in this week's collection for the Society for the Propagation of the Faith.

PRAY FOR OUR SICK

Please keep these parishioners in your prayers,
and all the sick and their families:

Fr. Mirosław Stepień, Christina Wallace, Kevin Larson, Frances Vogt, Alice Walent, Max Dricolo and Carla Tinebro

If you or a member of your family is ill or hospitalized and would like to be placed on our Prayer List, please call the Rectory office and let us know. The sick will be listed here, in the bulletin, and prayed for by name at Sunday Mass. Names of the sick will remain on the list for two weeks, unless notified.

PRAY FOR OUR DECEASED

Please pray for all of those who have died, especially

Erika Normantas

"Eternal rest, grant unto them, O Lord, and may perpetual light shine upon them."

Souls in Purgatory

Coming to Visitation Church!

Dr. Ray Guarendi

“Faith, Family, & Parenting”

Sunday, Nov. 7th, 3:00 pm
In the Church

All are welcome

Appreciating and living our Catholic faith in the midst of marriage and family life can be very challenging these days.

Parenting and raising children to develop strong spiritual and moral compasses can seem like a daunting task.

Thankfully, “The Dr. is in” on November 7th!

Dr. Ray Guarendi is a Catholic father of ten adopted children, a clinical psychologist, author, professional speaker, and national radio and TV host.

His radio show, “The Dr. Is In” can be heard on over 440 stations and Sirius XM channel 130. His TV show, “Living Right with Dr. Ray” can be seen on EWTN.

KIDS!

 GOSPEL

Bartimaeus may have been poor and blind, but he sure was smart! He had the kind of faith that made Jesus smile. Bartimaeus knew exactly who Jesus was—the Messiah. And Bartimaeus knew Jesus had the power to make him see. When Jesus called him, Bartimaeus left everything behind—even his coat—just to follow Jesus.

 PRAYER

Dear God, thank you for helping Bartimaeus see you and follow you. Help me to follow his example.

Please join us in praying for our priests. We meet each Thursday in the church at 8:45 AM.

Combat the Culture of Death

The month of October is quickly coming to an end and the crosses on the corner of York and Madison have been removed. Let us not forget the 4000 children that are killed per day through abortion in this country.

“Christians live in the midst of a colossal spiritual conflict and must turn to God in prayer to reverse the culture of death prevalent in modern society,” says Father Frank Pavone. “That’s why Perpetual Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament is so important. We’re involved in it, brothers and sisters, whether we want to be or not. This is why we need Divine Mercy. This is why we need the Eucharist, and this is why we need Perpetual Adoration.”

“Unless we take refuge in the flesh and blood of Christ, we can’t be saved from the culture of death and we can’t live the very words that the Eucharist is calling us to live. One of the things that the Eucharist does is remind us that God is physical, and therefore remind us that we are, too.”

“The culture of death moves forward in society by denigrating the meaning, value and sanctity of the human body, and even takes Christ’s words – “This is my Body [given up for you]” – and turns them into a pro-abortion mantra.” The mantra is “This is my body and I can do what I want.” “Abortion is more grievous than all the rest of the sins, because it says, ‘I sacrifice the other person for the good of myself’ and is the exact opposite of love.”

With an increase in the number of people involved in Perpetual Adoration, Fr. Pavone has seen a decrease in the number of abortions and abortion clinics. He comments, that “In the midst of incredible spiritual conflict, we are called to experience the peace and joy that come only from the Lord Jesus Christ, and that no one and nothing can ever take away from us.”

Our Adoration Chapel is open 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. But, from time to time, our adorers need some help. For any number of reasons, they find it difficult to make their adoration hour every week. One very easy solution for this difficulty is to have a partner to share the responsibility.

At the current time, Sunday 5-6 PM is empty and in need of Registered adorers.

Many hours need partners. Won’t you please consider helping them out? Visit our website at www.visitationparish.org/adoration

To sign up for an hour please email us at VisitationAdorationChapel@gmail.com or contact Joan Taylor at 630-530-8963 or Owen & Gail Hilding at 630 573 0033 to register.

REMEMBER YOUR LOVED ONES IN A BEAUTIFUL WAY THIS NOVEMBER 1ST AND NOVEMBER 2ND

Praying in cemeteries for departed loved ones, especially in November, is customary in all Catholic countries. It’s typical for the faithful to visit the graves of relatives and friends on All Saints Day (Nov. 1) and/or All Souls Day (Nov. 2).

Leading up to All Saints Day, many people decorate the graves of their loved ones with flowers and place candles to be lighted on the vigil of All Saints Day. The candles then burn through the night. People call them “lights of the Holy Souls.”

Can’t make it to the cemetery? Buy a candle for your deceased friend or family member and place it at the foot of the Mary statue in the circle drive.

Candles will be available for a small fee before and after Masses on October 31 and November 1. They will also be available in the rectory this week.

Let’s pray for our departed loved ones: “Eternal rest grant to them, O Lord; and let light perpetual shine upon them.”

Spiritual Adoption Campaign

SPIRITUAL ADOPTION—40 WEEKS—2021

Week 31—October 23-24, 2021

“I finally made my move this week and turned my body over. It was tough, but I did it! It is important that I am upside down now so that when the time comes for me to make my entrance into the world, I’ll be ready to go. My lungs have started to secrete a liquid that will help my lungs fully expand when I take my first breath of air. I can’t WAIT for my birthday. Please keep praying for me.”

Spiritual Adoption Prayer

Lord Jesus, you said, “let the children come to me.” (Matthew 19:14)

Therefore, with deep trust in your infinite mercy, I bring _____, the child that I have spiritually adopted and who is at risk of being aborted, to your Sacred Heart this day. Please grant that the parents of this child may quickly come to the realization that this new life is not an inconvenience or a burden, but a child; their child, their own flesh and blood. Give them the courage, strength and guidance they need to embrace this child and to choose life! Amen.

Are you interested in becoming Catholic?
Or were you baptized Catholic but never received First Eucharist and/or Confirmation?

Then the RCIA is for you.

The RCIA is a process for fully initiating adults into the Catholic faith. It is for:

- 1) Those who have never been baptized.
- 2) Those who were baptized and/or raised in another church and now want to become Catholic.
- 3) Baptized Catholics who never completed their initiation through the sacraments of Eucharist and/or Confirmation.

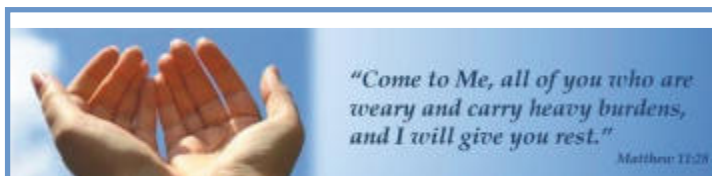

Meetings take place weekly on Tuesday evenings until the Easter Vigil (April 15th), when the candidates will receive the sacraments and be fully initiated into the Catholic Church.

There will also be four times when the candidates attend Sunday Mass together and receive the prayers and support of the community.

If interested, please contact Matt Pozen:

The History of the Papacy --- Article 4

By Matt Pozen – Director of Faith Formation

Last week we finished our look at Peter in the gospels and then began to look at his role in the Acts of the Apostles, which tells the story of the beginnings of the Church. Peter plays an important role in Acts 1-15 and then mysteriously disappears from the narrative after that, as Paul takes center stage in Acts 16-24. We noted first Peter's great Pentecost sermon in Acts 2 to the crowd of Jews who witnessed the transforming power of the Holy Spirit. He goes on to give a series of great sermons in Acts 3, 4, 10, 11, & 15, witnessing to the Good News of Jesus.

In addition to portraying Peter as the Church's first great preacher, Acts depicts him in a few other important roles. First, he is portrayed as a healer. Just as the gospels recount the healing power of Jesus, so in the name of Jesus Peter heals a crippled man in Acts 3: "I have neither silver nor gold, but what I do have I give you: in the name of Jesus Christ the Nazorean, rise and walk." There are additional stories about Peter's healing ministry in Acts 5 & 9, and in Acts 9:36-43 he even raises a fellow believer (Tabitha) from the dead!

Second, Peter is portrayed as a persecuted prophet. Just as Jesus was arrested and put on trial by the Jewish religious leaders (the Sanhedrin), so Peter in Acts 4 & 5 is arrested and tried by this same council for proclaiming Jesus and the resurrection. Just as the political authorities got involved in the arrest of Jesus, so King Herod imprisons Peter in Acts 12, though he miraculously escapes.

Third, Peter acts as an important discernor of the Spirit and decision-maker in the early community. In Acts 1, he guides the apostles in appointing someone to replace Judas. In Acts 8, he (and John) "confirm" the evangelizing work of Philip in Samaria by laying hands on those who were baptized, that they might receive the Holy Spirit. In Acts 10-11, Peter plays a crucial role in extending the mission of the Church beyond Israel to the Gentiles. Still rooted in his Jewish heritage and its distinctions between pure (kosher) and impure, in a vision he hears a voice assure him: "What God has made clean, you are not to call profane" (Acts 10:15). So he proclaims the good news to the Gentile Cornelius and his household, and after witnessing the power of the Spirit descend upon them he baptizes them, declaring: "In truth, I see that God shows no partiality." When the other apostles back in Jerusalem question Peter about mixing with Gentiles, he responds: "If God gave them the same gift he gave to us when we came to believe in the Lord Jesus Christ, who was I to be able to hinder God?" (Acts 11:17).

Finally, Peter acts as an important "bridge builder" between factions in the early Church. After Paul began to travel beyond Israel and direct the Christian mission to the Gentiles, some of the more traditional Christian leaders in Jerusalem objected. Deeply rooted in their Jewish background, they demanded that Gentiles first become Jews and be circumcised before being baptized into the Christian faith. Paul and his co-workers insisted that this was not necessary for the Gentiles. The divisions over the issue were so sharp that in Acts 15 the various leaders decided to meet together in Jerusalem to hash things out. This first great "council" would become the model for how the Church would discern the movement of the Spirit in applying the Good News to an ever-changing world. (The Catholic Church counts 21 such "ecumenical councils" in its history; averaging about one per century.)

At the Council of Jerusalem in AD 50, Peter acted as a "bridge-builder" between the more progressive wing of Paul on the left and the more traditional wing of some of the apostles on the right. He initially seemed to favor the progressive faction by asking the traditionalists: "Why are you putting God to the test by placing on the shoulders of the disciples a yoke that neither our ancestors nor we have been able to bear? On the contrary, we believe that we are saved through the grace of the Lord Jesus, in the same way as they." So they all agreed to not force Gentiles to become Jews before becoming Christian. On the other hand, when James, the leader of the presbyters (elders) of the church in Jerusalem, asked that the Gentile converts at least respect the kosher sensibilities of their Jewish Christian brothers & sisters, Peter agreed to this demand of the traditionalists. Together they all put these decisions into writing: "It is the decision of the holy Spirit and of us not to place on the Gentiles any burden beyond these necessities" (Acts 15:28).

This "bridge-building" role of Peter would become an important role for popes throughout history, as they strived to hold together a global community of believers with varying viewpoints on important matters of faith and practice. In fact, the old Latin title of "pontifex maximus" that was claimed by the Roman Emperors eventually became one of the titles for the pope, which in English is translated as "supreme pontiff".

Dear Parents,

The Raffle Tree is back this year! For those of you not familiar with the event, the Raffle Tree is a very successful fundraising effort of the CCH's St. Nick's Boutique. It will be held on Saturday November 6th at Visitation. This event is enjoyed by all, especially the children! The success of the event has always depended on the generosity of our parishioners, students and local businesses.

If you would like to donate an item, gift card or cash, your help would be greatly appreciated! We are collecting donations now until the end of October. Donations can be any size ranging from $1 to $500. Items can range from as small as party favor toys, to unused birthday presents, unused electronics and a new children's bike. All cash donations will be used to purchase additional items for the raffle.

Please feel free to drop off your generous donations to the addresses listed or in the SCouth Parking Lot weekdays after school. Please email or call Lindsay Cibelli with any additional questions. "For your convenience cash, check or gift card donations can be sent through the school to Lindsay Cibelli % Gia Cibelli room 125.
