Issue: Migrants

In his message on World Day of Migrants and Refugees, Pope Francis stressed the need to create a welcoming environment for migrants and refugees. The Holy Father wrote, “Every stranger who knocks at our door is an opportunity for an encounter with Jesus Christ who identifies with the welcomed and rejected strangers of every age”. Pope Francis also called on States to provide safe and legal pathways to migration with access to basic services. Pope Francis went on to express his concern for the protection of underage migrants and warned against any form of detention of children related to their migration status, adding that children should be guaranteed access to health, education and the right to nationality.

Teaching:

What the Church teaches, is in scripture, or is the position of the archdiocese or USCCB:

One of Five principles that help guide the Church’s approach to migration - USCCB

III. Sovereign nations have the right to control their borders.
The Church recognizes the right of sovereign nations to control their territories but rejects such control when it is exerted merely for the purpose of acquiring additional wealth. More powerful economic nations, which have the ability to protect and feed their residents, have a strong obligation to accommodate migration flows.

Action:

What we can do to promote equality, rights, health, safety and dignity of others:

Join Pope Francis and the church around the world in a global campaign to love our immigrant and refugee neighbors in the Share the Journey.

Say the SHARE THE JOURNEY prayer

Adonai, Lord and Master; Many are the journeys your people have taken; Abraham’s journey led from fear to understanding; Moses’s journey led from bondage to liberty; The disciple’s journey led from death to new life. Even today, your people journey--- Immigrants and refugees, pilgrims and nomads, Searching for hope, Searching for opportunity, Searching for you. Lord I know that I too am called to journey. Continue to call me beyond my comfort and into encounter. And when I meet a companion on the road, May we find you in each other’s embrace. Let us share the journey.
