CRS Boosts Vanilla Growing in Uganda!  Uganda’s vanilla quality is so high that people across the world refer to it as ‘green gold’ because of rising demand. It is a very volatile crop to grow, and prices go up and down. The government has taken an important step to turn the nation into a global leader in vanilla production by limiting the time the crop can be harvested. The scramble for the crop has resulted in premature harvesting, frequent instances of theft and even killings of farmers. If this legislation can stop the sale of vanilla when it is too early, it will raise the overall quality of the marketplace. This will enable smallholder farmers to get a fair price while ensuring that global buyers, like the U.S., are getting the highest quality beans. Besides working with the Ugandan government on creating a regulatory framework, CRS is working with vanilla and coffee farmers in the Kasese and Buikwe Districts on crop diversification and other farming techniques to help build their resilience to price volatility. Learn more at www.crs.org/Uganda.

Catholic Business Exchange

Darlene Sweeney, Volunteer Coordinator for the Society of St. Vincent de Paul, Indianapolis, will address the June Catholic Business Exchange. Her topic will be: St. Vincent de Paul: Changing Times...Changing Lives.

Darlene is responsible for managing hundreds of regular SVdP volunteers in addition to scheduling volunteer groups from area schools, universities, corporations, churches and youth groups. Previously, she was the Volunteer Recruiter at SVdP in South Bend and owned her own destination management company in Lake Tahoe for almost ten years.

The event is Friday morning, July 19, at the Northside Events and Social Club. Mass starts at 7am and the program will be finished by 9am. Cost for the program includes a great breakfast and is $15 in advance for members and $21 for non-members. Registration is required. To register, pay online and for more information, visit www.catholicbusinessexchange.org.

The Catholic Business Exchange is a fun way for Catholic men and women to share their common faith and interest in business. The group meets the third Friday of each month for Mass, networking, breakfast and a featured speaker.
