Issue: Immigrants

Immigrants are persons who move to countries of which they are not a native or where they do not possess citizenship with the intention to settle or reside there, especially as permanent resident or naturalized citizens, or to take up employment as migrant workers or temporarily as foreign workers.

Teaching:

What the Church teaches, is in scripture, or is the position of the archdiocese or USCCB:

1. Persons have the right to find opportunities in their homeland.
2. Persons have the right to migrate to support themselves and their families.
3. Sovereign nations have a right to control their borders.
4. Refugees and asylum seekers should be afforded protection.
5. The human rights and the human dignity of undocumented migrants should be respected.

Deuteronomy 24:14 – “You shall not defraud a poor and needy hired servant, whether he be one of your own countrymen or one of the aliens who lives in your communities.”

Action:

What we can do to promote equality, rights, health, safety and dignity of others:

Join Pope Francis and the Church around the world in a global campaign to love our immigrant and refugee neighbors in the Share the Journey. On September 27, 2017, Pope Francis launched a two-year worldwide campaign in support of migrants and refugees. In the U.S., the campaign is being implemented by USCCB, CRS and Catholic Charities USA. Catholics around the world can join the launch to generate widespread media attention to the Church’s support and commitment to Share the Journey of migrants and refugees. On social media, use #ShareTheJourney and #ComparteElCamino.

Prayer for an End to Human Trafficking

Oh God, we didn’t see them. But you did—

The hundreds and thousands of human beings trafficked each year to join the millions who are trapped in modern-day slavery.

Under terrible conditions, they work in factories, plow fields, harvest crops, work quarries, fill brothels, clean homes, and haul water.

Many are children with tiny fingers for weaving rugs and small shoulders for bearing rifles.

Their labor is forced, their bodies beaten, their faces hidden from those who don’t really want to see them.

But you see them all, God of the poor.

You hear their cry and you answer by opening our eyes, and breaking our hearts and loosening our tongues to insist:

No more. No more.
Amen

3rd Annual RCIA Workshop

The Archdiocesan RCIA Committee and the Secretariat for Worship and Evangelization, is hosting the 3rd Annual RCIA Day on the Liturgical Dimension of RCIA Ministry, with Dr. Timothy O’Malley, director of education at the McGrath Institute for Church Life and academic director of the Notre Dame Center for Liturgy. Taking place on Saturday, August 3rd at Holy Trinity, Edinburgh, from 9:00 am to 12:00 noon, with an optional afternoon session on RCIA Best Practices: Do’s and Don’ts. Join us and enjoy liturgy expert Dr. Timothy O’Malley as he helps us understand and apply the liturgical components of RCIA.
