Issue: Religious Liberty

Religious liberty is under attack, both at home and abroad. Global religious freedom is under siege. Over 75 percent of the world’s population live in countries with high or very high governmental and/or societal restrictions on religious freedom. Political/economic disputes over power and access to resources/land/property are often framed in religious terms. All these fuel unrest and conflict.

Teaching:
What the Church teaches, is in scripture, or is the position of the archdiocese or USCCB:

USCCB POSITION: The Church and the USCCB have long supported international religious freedom and made religious freedom for all a high priority in policy deliberations. The Second Vatican Council declared that “the human person has a right to religious freedom” and called upon governments to safeguard that freedom. Religious freedom is viewed as “a cornerstone of the structure of human rights.” In particular, USCCB is addressing the challenges facing those in the Cradle of Christianity, echoing calls by the Holy See to protect those living in Iraq and Syria threatened by ISIS, especially religious and ethnic minorities. Pope Francis denounced the persecution, torture and killing of Christians and other religious minorities in the Middle East as “a form of genocide” that must end.

Pope Francis said, “We desire that men and women of different religions may everywhere gather and promote harmony, especially where there is conflict. …we are called to free ourselves from the heavy burdens of distrust, fundamentalism and hate.”

Action:
What we can do to promote equality, rights, health, safety and dignity of others:

Oh God of all the nations, the one God who is and was and always will be, who in your providence willed that your church be united to the suffering of your Son, look with mercy on your servants who are persecuted for their faith in you. Grant them perseverance and courage to be worthy imitators of Christ. Bring your wisdom upon leaders of nations to work for peace among all peoples. May your Spirit open conversion for those who contradict your will that we live in harmony. Give us the grace to be united in truth and freedom, and to always seek your will in our lives. Through Christ our Lord, Amen

Our Lady, help of Persecuted Christians, pray for us.

Join the USCCB and thousands of Catholics praying and fasting every Friday for the renewal of a culture of life and marriage, and for the protection of religious liberty in our country. Your prayers matter! Your sacrifices make a difference! www.usccb.org/pray
