REACHING IN, REACHING OUT, REACHING GOD

Father Gerry's 'CAP'-TIONS

Friends in Christ of St. Joseph Parish! God has blessed this parish faith community for over 150 years with its beginnings first with Diocesan Pastors. The Capuchin-Franciscans came a few years later and have been the predominant presence serving as Pastoral Ministers. I have been one of the fortunate Capuchins to minister here in the parish, first 34 years ago this June, and now just shy of one year. Your Franciscan spirit of commitment to Gospel values illustrates your love for the faith and the rich heritage, you embody as a people of God. St. Joseph Parish demonstrates inclusiveness, that everyone is a valued member and belongs as one in the Body of Christ.

Thank you for the opportunity to minister and serve as your Pastor. Our rich liturgical prayer life and parish gatherings renewed us to be the people God has called us to be. May you never lose that faith-filled spirit entrusted to you by your parents, godparents, grandparents, and beloved members who have gone on before us and are now with the Risen Christ. The spirit of St. Francis of Assisi lives and is embodied in you all as a parish community. With Capuchins as your servant-leaders over these many, many years, and with my consciousness of that Franciscan spirit, the integration of this rich diverse community shows the desire and will to be one people growing together in faith as a family of God. All are one in the Spirit. Nothing can separate us from the love of God that comes to us in Christ Jesus.

Thank you for the opportunity to be a part of your lives, sharing faith, and being a member of your parish community. Your lived faith is truly recognized/exemplified and appreciated much.

As I move on to Chicago for a two-month sabbatical, and semi-retired status, be assured of my prayerful support as you transition in welcoming and working with your temporary Parish Administrator, assigned by the Bishop of the Diocese of Green Bay (the person's name has not been revealed as of this writing). Your Franciscan spirit will truly be a welcome for him to make him feel at home. As I was blessed to be here, your new Parish Administrator will be blessed as well to share in your Franciscan charism of hospitality and communal spirit. For St. Joseph Parish welcomes everyone who enters this sacred place and joins as one at the table of the Lord. Peace be with you! Let us keep each other in prayer. THANK YOU!

GOD IS GOOD, ALL THE TIME! ALL THE TIME, GOD IS GOOD!!!
May God's love and grace abide with you always+
Fr. Gerry
