REACHING IN, REACHING OUT, REACHING GOD

Shepherd's Voice:

Dear members of our St. Joe's Family,

Greetings of Peace! I thank everyone for your prayers and blessings, and warm welcome last weekend.

This weekend's Gospel story is very familiar to us. It is a passage that has spoken to many people through the centuries about who Christ is, the character of his relationship with us, and the mission he gives us. The parable of the Good Samaritan is introduced with a question. "Teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?" This is a question that each of us has asked many times, even if we have never articulated it in these exact terms.

To answer his questions, Jesus tells this story. We know the parable of the Good Samaritan is a lesson to teach us that we must love our neighbor. Pope Francis tells us, "The Good Samaritan isn't just a parable, it's a way of life." The important question here is, who is my neighbor? Who do I have to love? Jesus' answer here is the most radical moral teaching in history. That is, loving our enemies. This is such a hard teaching to practice. By spiritualizing the word "love" it is our Christian life.

In this story, real conversion demands that our following of Christ includes our determination to offer help to others to the best of our ability. St. Teresa of Calcutta says, "Keep giving Jesus to people not by words but by example." Let us reach out and touch somebody's hand, making this world a better place if we can.

Blessings!

Fr. Raja Selvam

The book selected for July 12 is: The Stranger in the Life Boat: a Novel by Mitch Albom. What would happen if we called on God for help and God actually appeared? Looking ahead: The August 9 book selection is The Delight of Being Ordinary by Rolland Merullo, and the September 13 selection is The Summer of Lost and Found by Mary Alice Monroe. For more info, please contact Mary Schulz, 920-809-4474. New members are welcome to join anytime.

Church Chuckle

A man walked into church on crutches and stopped in front of the holy water. He splashed some on his legs and then tossed his crutches aside. An altar boy who witnessed the man's actions ran to tell the priest what had happened.

The priest said, "son you have just witnessed a miracle. Where is the man now?" The altar boy replied, "lying on the floor next to the holy water."
