PRAYER AND REFLECTION

A Word from Sr. Phyllis: The first Wednesday in March is Ash Wednesday. We will offer two possibilities to receive ashes that day: 12:10 pm Communion Service and at 6:00 pm mass.

The theme for Lent this year will be: Conversion of Heart...Untying the Knots in Our Lives. The Sunday before Ash Wednesday everyone will be given a cord with knots in it. These knots symbolize the stumbling blocks on our way to relationship with Jesus. Lent is a time to reflect on what separates us from God. With whom do we need to be reconciled? Who is it that we need to forgive? Is there someone we have ignored? Are we too busy giving things but not enough of our time....our presence? This Lent let's reflect on eliminating the stumbling blocks... whatever it is that puts knots in our stomach. Rather than giving up this year...let's focus on untying.

Even the environment will remind us of our desire to deal with the knots. You will see a black drape on the front of the altar with one large knot in the center. Even the podium will have a knot reminding us to put the words we hear into action.

"Give and gifts will be given to you; a good measure, packed together, shaken down, and overflowing, will be poured into your lap. For the measure with which you measure will in return be measured out to you." - Lk 6:38
