GOSPEL MEDITATION

May 19, 2019—5th Sunday of Easter

"I give you a new commandment: love one another." With these words, Jesus sums up the law and the prophets in one concise phrase. Love one another. After 2,000 years, you'd think we'd have it figured out by now! But all too often we fail in this commandment. Perhaps we mistake "love" for mere "common decency." Perhaps we've been betrayed, or our own visions of love have been tarnished or misrepresented in our lives. Blessedly, Jesus doesn't leave us without a guide.

"As I have loved you, so you also should love one another." Jesus himself modeled what this love should look like. So what are some of the characteristics of the love of Christ? Humility, for one. St. Paul writes that Jesus "emptied Himself." In becoming man, Jesus puts aside the full splendor of the Godhead. Not only does he become human, but he takes on many of the mundane privations of human life. He spent most of his life in relative poverty - especially by our standards - as a common laborer. When he began gaining popularity as a preacher, he still traveled on foot and spent nights in other people's homes or outdoors.

Jesus' love is generous. He was always available to the crowds and to being interrupted by people in need. He invested time in his disciples and patiently taught them about the kingdom of God. The love of Jesus is also courageous. He encountered many people deemed less worthy of human respect, due to being public sinners or having a physical or mental disability. Jesus was brave in breaking these social boundaries to show care and concern to the outcast. These traits are possible for us to imitate! Indeed, we are hardly identifiable as Christians without them. "This is how all will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another."

PRAYER AND REFLECTION

A Word from Sr. Phyllis:

Easter is the season of new life. We are so blessed as a parish with all the new life that is ours.

Gabriel & Luna Hurtado-Leco were baptized at the Easter Vigil.

Trinity Beckmann, Alexander DeRuntz and Calyssa Gerlock received First Communion on Mother's Day and Gabriel Leco received at the Vigil.

Alison Bledsoe, Amelia Booker, and Caleb Racine were confirmed April 29th at Our Lady of Mount Carmel. Gabriel Leco was also confirmed at the Easter Vigil.

Let us celebrate the New Life that is ours.

Pray every day to end abortion, euthanasia the death penalty.

SEASONAL REFLECTION

7 Things Every High School Graduate Should Hear

- 1. Live with intention. College will be full of new opportunities. Think carefully about your priorities for your new start.
- 2. Make the right friends. There will be plenty of new people! Concentrate on the ones who motivate you to be a better person.
- 3. It's a big world! Look for new perspectives, new opportunities, and new ideas that push you to grow.
- 4. Find a mentor. Building relationships with people who have "been there, done that" can be a great help.
- 5. Give yourself away. You may not need to volunteer anymore, but you'll be surprised what you learn, how you grow, and who you meet when you serve.
- 6. Before you go, learn how to do your laundry, address an envelope, schedule a doctor's appointment, use public transportation, and cook basic meals (ramen doesn't count!).
- 7. Remember that God is in control. And that's a good thing!
